The Inscape Centre is part of the The Together Trust, a charity that has been operating for over 140 years. We believe that everyone deserves an equal chance in life and everyone has the ability and right to experience joy, safety, happiness and hope. By providing specialist education, care and community services to children, young people and adults the Together Trust aims to do everything in its power to make that happen.

Course overview

This one day course is specifically designed to give parents, carers and professionals an overview to the TEACCH programme.

TEACCH is a broad based approach which takes into account all aspects of the lives of people with autism and their families. It emphasises the importance of individualised assessment and recognises the strengths of people with autism. The programmes build on existing skills and interests, and stress the importance of structure and developing independence.

Presented by

This course will be led by Gary Mesibov and Kathy Hearsey from The University of North Carolina, USA.

Gary is Director of Division TEACCH and has extensive experience in working with people with autism spectrum conditions. He has lectured throughout the USA and in many other parts of the world. With colleagues, he has been involved in many research projects and has written extensively on all aspects of autism.

Suggested participants

This course will be of particular interest to parents, carers, short break providers and other family members who live or work with children and young people with an autism spectrum conditions (ASC).
