"If you look at the matter selfishly, it is very much your interest to give these Lads a lift, because they are exactly at an age when habits of industry and honesty on the one hand, and of idleness and vice on the other, are permanently formed. It is now or never for them. The next two or three years will probably decide whether they are as workers to increase the public wealth, or whether they are to lessen it by living upon it for the rest of their days as paupers, vagrants, or possibly worse."—LORD DERBY at Annual Meeting, January, 1873.

The Ninth Annual Meeting of the MANCHESTER AND SALFORD BOYS' AND GIRLS' REFUGES AND HOMES was held in the Memorial Hall, Albert Square, on Monday, January 20th, 1879.

Amongst those present were the Lord Bishop of Manchester, the Mayor of Manchester, Hugh Birley, Esq., M.P., Rev. Prebendary Macdonald, Rev. Canon Woodhouse, Peter MacLaren, Esq., Isaac Hoyle, Esq., H. J. Leppoc, Esq., Rev. William Mc.Caw, Councillor J. A. Birch, Charles Sever, Esq., Frederick Taylor, Esq., Edmund Whitworth, Esq. and others.

THE MAYOR OF MANCHESTER took the Chair at 12 o'clock.

The Meeting having been opened with prayer, the Annual Report was read by the Secretary, Mr. LEONARD SHAW, and the Financial Statement of the Treasurer by Mr. J. C. STUART.

It was then moved by HUGH BIRLEY, Esq., M.P., and seconded by Rev. Prebendary MACDONALD,—

"That the Report and Treasurer's Statement now read be adopted, printed, and circulated, under the direction of the Committee."

It was moved by the LORD BISHOP OF MANCHESTER, seconded by Councillor J. A. BIRCH, and supported by Rev. WILLIAM MC.CAW.

"That the Committee for the ensuing year be Messrs. R. B. Taylor, Louis Hayes, H. B. Harrison, T. H. Rymer, and Leonard K. Shaw, and that the Treasurer be Mr. Jas. C. Stuart."

These Resolutions were adopted unanimously; and a vote of thanks to the Mayor for presiding concluded the proceedings.

Seeking the friendless children
Strayed from the Shepherd's fold ;
Aiding their guardian angels,
As in the days of old.
Under the death-damp archways,
Out on the cold wet stair,
There where the lonesome lamplight
Trembles with sickly glare.

Never a father's blessing ;
Never a mother's care ;
Never a hand of soothing
Passed through the unkempt hair.
Never, except in curses,
Aught of a God they know :
Never the earth's glad sunshine,—
Only its night of wee.

Lend us a hand to help them,
Mothers with darlings bright ;
Pity the friendless children,
Dear in a Saviour's sight !
Friend with a child in Heaven,
Hear, for it calls to you,
Bidding you help some wanderer
On to these mansions too.

Father, and friends, and sisters,
Help us with heart and hand,
Seeking the friendless children,
Swelling the angel band !

REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1878

SURROUNDED by many tokens of commercial gloom and of social distress, the Committee of the BOYS' AND GIRLS' REFUGES AND HOMES, on this their ninth anniversary, meet the friends of the Homeless and Destitute with feelings of thankfulness, not unmixed with a little anxiety : in looking back, thankfulness ; for, notwithstanding the gloom, two new branches,—the Girls' Branch, Broughton-lane, and another Orphan Home for Little Boys in Cheetham,—have been added to our Institution ; a larger number have been helped than in any previous year, and we close the year with more children under our care than at any former period : in looking forward, a little anxiety ; for we cannot shut our eyes to the fact that in the community among whom we live there is not as much wealth to draw from as there was a few years ago, and that when so much is being given to meet special needs, the more permanent forms of distress which surround us are likely to suffer.

Still, when we remember the steps that have led our Institution to its present position, we dare not use the language of distrust ; for we think we can see the hand of God in every enlargement, and that in each onward step we have followed and not gone before the leadings of Providence. The destitute cases that fill our Homes are, to a large extent, not of our seeking. For some time past our journeys to the lowest parts of our city have not been so much to seek out cases, as to investigate those that have already, in their want and misery, come voluntarily to our door. If, therefore, our investigation proves the cases genuine, they come to us, established as we are to aid the destitute children of our city, with an almost providential claim on our help. But the Committee did not deem the fact of having needy cases waiting to occupy a new branch, a sufficiently clear indication that we were at once to open such a branch for them; a new Home involves a large preliminary expense in furnishing, &c.; we waited therefore until some friend volunteered to provide this outlay.

Well, this has been the history of each enlargement of the Institution:—The destitute cases have been sent to us; and then, when our Homes have been crowded out, God has inclined some heart to provide the means of establishing a new one. Surely we should have been unworthy of the trust committed to us had we held back; and surely we should prove still more unworthy and ungrateful if, having thus followed the leadings of Providence, we should now doubt that He in whose hands are the hearts of men will incline those hearts to give all that the work needs.

Before briefly alluding to the work of the year, we would say a word on a subject which has a direct bearing on our work. Each year since the Refuge was established we have been enabled to chronicle a steady decrease in the juvenile apprehensions for crime and depravity. The boys of 16 and under, apprehended by the police, who in 1871 numbered 1349, in 1877 only numbered 606! We rejoiced and felt thankful for this fact. Last year, however, the figures are against us. In 1878 the number apprehended were 688. We regret this fact; probably the reason of it may be found in the scarcity of work which has prevailed throughout the year, for—

“Satan finds some mischief still
For idle hands to do.”

But whatever the cause, we trust the reproach may in the coming year be wiped away.

Numbers Applying and Admitted.

The applicants have been very numerous throughout the year. Nightly has our aid been sought, and though this Report only deals with those actually admitted, a large amount of time and anxious care has been bestowed in investigating, and rendering the temporary assistance needed by those whom we could not admit. Many erring ones have thus been restored,—many wayward ones reprov'd,—many hungry ones fed, and sad and sorrowful ones cheered, of whom this Report takes no account; but which in the retrospect forms no unimportant part of the work of a busy year. The numbers actually admitted have been 121, of which—

62 had lost both parents,
44 had lost one parent,
15 had parents living somewhere.

121

Their condition educationally showed a slight improvement on last year.

There were unable to pass Standard 1...	37

Last year, out of a total admitted of 114, 40 were unable to pass Standard 1. This year, out of a total admitted of 121, 37 could not pass Standard 1. The improvement is slight, but still in the right direction.

We give the outlines of four of the cases admitted, which will fairly illustrate the class we deal with and help :—

J. R.

Age 10 years.—Both parents dead,—the father died in the workhouse five months ago. An elder sister and this little boy were then taken in by a woman living in a street back of Hardman-court, Deansgate; after a few weeks, however, the sister went off to Liverpool and has not since been heard of. The poor woman, herself a widow with a large family, continued to keep James until things became so bad that she could give him food no longer. On the day we called she had just pawned her petticoat (the only decent article of clothing she had) for one shilling; she showed us the ticket, and also the food she had purchased with it for her starving family. The same evening we admitted James, pale and starved-looking, to our already crowded Refuge.

J. S.

Age 12 to 13.—This sadly neglected poor boy was found sleeping in a yard at Hyde, and for this offence (!) was by the magistrates there committed to gaol for 14 days with hard labour! The fact was, the poor boy was absolutely homeless. His father was dead; he had a mother "somewhere," but he knew not where. Long neglect and ill-usage had almost stupefied the boy, and so, not being able, in the police court, to give a very satisfactory account of himself and his belongings, two Hyde magistrates passed on him this sentence, which we trust they have since seen cause to regret. The case called forth severe comments in the public press. Meanwhile we had the poor lad met on leaving Knutsford gaol, and provided him with a safe home at the Refuge, otherwise there was nothing else for him but again seeking some stable or yard to rest in. A more neglected case we never admitted.

C. E.

Was one of the first girls who sought admission into our Home, February 19th, 1878. Her mother died two months previously; her father had deserted his family many years before this, when she was in infancy. Since the death of her mother she had been from one poor neighbour to another, wherever she could obtain a night's shelter. She was miserably clad, and presented a pitiable sight when she was brought by her brother (who was an inmate of our Boys' Refuge) to seek admission. From the time of entering the Home she appeared to appreciate the advantages of her new condition, and often expressed herself most grateful for the same. Four months after her admission into the Home an application was made by a christian couple for a girl to adopt and train up as their own. C. E. was selected, and has since that time been all that could be desired in her new home. A more striking contrast can scarcely be conceived between this girl when she applied to us twelve months since, and the clean, bright, well-cared-for appearance she presented on visiting the Home on Saturday last. The motherly care of the matron, or rather mother, will, we feel assured, have a blessed influence on her future life.

E. C.

Early in December we heard of this little boy of eight years old, through the School-Board officer. Both father and mother were dead, and he was living in a state of great neglect in a very low house where an elder brother and some other people, men and women, lived. When we heard that he was engaged at the Casino every evening, we felt no time should be lost in rescuing him from such evil influences, and we went to the house the same night, but failed to obtain admission. Next evening we were more fortunate. Here amid filth and dirt, and every bad influence, this dear little fellow lived, and was just being sent to his nightly calling when we arrived. A few minutes' conversation made him willing to accompany us, and, amid several objections from his "surroundings," we bore off our prize, and safely lodged him in our new Orphan Home. As we travelled along to the Home, he told us in his childish way of the ill-usage he had received and the life he had lived; "but," he added, in a tone that was very sad and touching, "I used to be a nice little boy when my father was alive!" Any one that could see his sweet, happy face now, would say this was true of him once more.

Such was the general condition of the 121 cases admitted. They came in most instances voluntarily, and were admitted without distinction of class or creed. Each case was investigated, if not possible before, immediately after admission, and none but the most destitute have been retained. Adding these 121 to the 154 in our Homes when the year began, it gives a total of 275 under our care during the twelve months, and of these we proceed now to give an account:—

A few words respecting the large number under our care at the Central Refuge, the Homes for Working Boys, the Homes for Little Boys, and the Girls' Home, is all our space will afford. At the Central Refuge,

Where the raw human material is first received off the streets, there are 71 boys. If any of our readers have not visited it we would say, Look in any day, for it is always open to visitors. As you walk down you will probably pass some 25 of our boys, whose red uniform denotes their peaceful calling. When you do arrive, if in the early morning, you will find an active school in operation, under the care of our excellent master; if it is not dinner-hour, you will find some 30 miniature workmen in a busy workshop, engaged under the eye of a kind but watchful foreman in producing the well-known firewood and fire-lighters. In two other departments tailoring and shoe-making are being carried on—while some 15 boys, whom you do not see, are in out-door situations. A Night School on three evenings, and recreation on the alternate evenings, completes the outline of the week's life at the Central Refuge. But leaving Strangeways and crossing over into Lower Broughton, we come to our Family Homes for Working Lads.

Of these we have four, each containing about 17 lads, or a total of 68. These Homes are the necessary outcome of the Strangeways Refuge,—the lads who compose them having received a training and education there, and becoming apprenticed to one of the trades of our city, are, under the care of a christian father and mother, growing up in these Homes surrounded by all the good influences of a well-ordered family. During the past year 12 of the elder ones, having become enabled to support themselves, have gone into safe lodgings, two having married steady, respectable girls, with every prospect of doing well in life.

These two divisions—the Refuge, and the Homes for Working Lads, contain all the boys who are able to work. Their payments have formed an important item in the income of the Institution. The total earnings for the year have been £2,494. 7s. 2d., of which they have paid towards their board £1,866. 16s. 3d. The difference between these two amounts, after allowing a small sum for pocket money and lawful recreation, is placed in our Savings Bank towards their Clothing.

The remaining branches—the Homes for Little Boys, the Girls' Branch, and the Training Ship—are, of course, unproductive.

The Homes for Little Boys

Next claim a word. Leaving Broughton and going over to Cheetham, we come to the Cheetham Orphan Homes, which are a branch of the work full of interest. Here we receive little ones who have lost both parents, and who are otherwise quite destitute. Each Home contains 12 children, and, under the care of a christian mother, forms a distinct and separate family. Snatched thus early from a life of sin and sorrow, these little ones are being trained up among all the wise and loving influences of a happy home, to develope, we trust and pray, into earnest christian men.

Last year we had two Homes, but the pressure of very needy cases as the year wore on, led "a Friend" to offer to furnish another. This new and to some extent temporary Home was opened about two months ago. There are now three Orphan Homes, where 33 destitute little boys who daily go to school are cared for. The Committee have one desire regarding these Orphan Homes,—receiving here friendless little ones, who cannot of course do anything towards their own support, and undertaking as they do the responsibility of entirely providing for them, they are very anxious that they should not have the additional burden of an annual rent. Our first two Homes are each free of this responsibility,—they have been purchased by two friends, presented to the Committee, and, now vested in Trustees, are set apart for the benefit of the orphan children of our city. Shall we plead in vain that this last, which we have spoken of as a temporary Home, shall be rendered permanent by being purchased and set apart for the same object? £500. may sound a large sum in these hard times, but we know there are still many in our midst who would not feel very much its withdrawal from their resources.

In these Homes we are seeking to carry out God's plan,—"He setteth the solitary in FAMILIES,"—not in barracks, massed together in large numbers, but in families, and thus we are gathering the little ones from haunts of vice and misery to bright, happy homes. Could our wealthy friends have come with us during the past year, and seen what these children are saved from, we should not have to plead long for the £500. we ask to-day.

Girls' Branch.

Our friends will be glad to learn that the branch for Girls contemplated and pleaded for in our Report twelve months ago has since become a reality. One who loves to be known only as "a Friend" immediately after last year's meeting placed in our hands £1,000., the interest of which we have set apart for the rent of this branch. Very suitable premises were soon afterwards procured at Heathfield, Broughton-lane. While these were preparing, Mrs. Clare, to whom the Boys' Refuge is under so many obligations, kindly placed her Nursery, Charles-street, at our disposal. The Committee were fortunate in securing a truly Christian House-mother, and under her care this Home for destitute Girls was opened on April 1st. Since then 28 girls have been received; of which number 5 have been placed in situations; 4 restored to friends; 1 sent to reformatory; thus leaving 18 in the Home at present. Of the 5 placed in situations it should be explained that 4 of them are in temporary Homes training for service, and are still under the oversight of the Committee. We invite our friends to visit this Home. We believe the training our girls are under is truly excellent, fitting them to become, by God's blessing, useful members of society.

Street Children.

We cannot bring this Report to a conclusion without alluding to a subject which last year occupied a prominent place in our report, and has since engaged a large amount of our attention;—we mean the condition of those children who from mid-day to midnight are found upon our streets plying their vagrant callings. We are thankful to record that the attention then called to a great and growing evil,—partly by our "Memorandum on Street Children," and then in our Annual Report and public meeting,—has not been without its effect. In the early part of the year meetings of various public bodies took place, who were unanimous in urging that the protection which was afforded by law against the untimely and excessive employment of children in workshops &c., should be extended to casual employment, and in all public places. The result was a deputation to the Home Secretary from the Corporations of both boroughs, the County and City Justices, School Boards, Industrial Schools, Refuges, &c. We were permitted on that occasion to state our experience and to plead the cause of these children, and we believe not without effect. We have ground for saying that Mr. Cross's sympathies are entirely with us. The suggestions which we in common with deputations from Glasgow and other cities made, have since been introduced into the new Scotch Education Bill, and we have the Home Secretary's promise that if this Bill became law for Scotland he would introduce similar clauses for England.

Conclusion.

And now, in conclusion, whether we consider the work which has been done, or that which still remains to do,—the 800 Destitute ones who during the last nine years have been received into these Homes, and the consequent vast amount of misery and crime (the consequences of which to this community who can estimate?) which has thus been prevented; or, the 200 now under our care and training, or, those yet to be rescued, whom these hard times are driving to our door,—on every ground we feel the cause we represent comes with a special claim to every home and to every heart.

Our balance sheet, which is appended to this Report, shows a deficiency of £140. on the year. We regret this, if only for the sake of our boys, who have worked nobly, contributing fully one-half of the total cost of the whole Institution. No doubt we have suffered lately owing to the large amounts given to the various relief funds, and to the commercial depression prevailing in this district, but we venture to think that these are only reasons for supporting more liberally work such as ours, for “hard times” turn more children on to the streets, and send more destitute ones to our door. But we fear another cause has contributed to this deficiency. Again and again have we heard the remark as a reason for not subscribing, “Oh, the Boys’ Refuge is so popular, it will never want for funds; it has so many friends.” We know this feeling largely prevails, and as a result we are in debt to-day! But we cannot believe that our efforts in the past to make this Institution efficient in all its operations will be thus rewarded.

To the many loving hearts and hands who have both worked and given throughout the past year, and thus raised our subscriptions to close upon £2,000,—we owe more thanks than we can express. Surely “the blessing of those that were ready to perish” will be theirs,—but whether we give money, or personal effort, or both, let us do it quickly.

There are voices on every side calling us to work while it is day. Since our gathering twelve months ago death, from which we had been mercifully spared for the previous eight years, has entered our Homes, and removed two of our lads, and as we write another of our number, a bright sailor lad who after finishing his three years’ training on board the “Indefatigable” with credit, had recently entered the royal navy at Plymouth, was returned to us invalided a short time ago; and is now at one of our Broughton Homes rapidly passing away.

These things remind us that “the time is short.” With renewed earnestness, therefore, the Committee would ask the co-operation of all who feel the importance of this work,—its importance to our social well-being, as well as to the interests present and future of these children. And in thus seeking to “rescue the perishing” we shall find that it is not the poor helpless ones only that are benefitted; but in our own hearts and homes we shall realize by happy experience that the words spoken eighteen hundred years ago are true to-day:—

“IT IS MORE BLESSED TO GIVE THAN TO RECEIVE!”

ADDENDA.

Again it is our pleasant duty to offer a word, and it can be but a word, of thanks to the increasing number of friends who, by their loving service during the year, have largely contributed to the welfare of the institution, and have wonderfully lightened the burden which otherwise would have been too heavy for the Committee to bear.

Dr. Andrew Boutflower has again given unwearied attention to the health of our large family; most "ungrudgingly" have his valuable services been rendered at all hours. His report, which follows, we commend to the attention of our friends.

Mr. T. L. Farrar, our legal friend, has been exceedingly kind during the year, and has rendered important service.

Mr. Edward Ashworth, who for several years past has kept the books of the institution, has again (aided by other friends who have helped him in this important branch of the work) laid the Committee under many obligations.

The trustees of Minshull's Charity, and of Butterworth and Bayley's Charity, have aided us much, their grants enabling us to apprentice several boys to some of the best trades in our city.

The various Ladies' Committees have been most active and devoted during the year. Through the exertions of the "Little Boys' Home Committee," not only have the interests of the Homes been looked after, but the total amount required to carry on this interesting branch of the work (£454. 15s. 9d.) has been raised by them in their own district, thus relieving the Central Committee of a heavy responsibility.

"The Ladies' Working Party" continues to meet on the last Tuesday of each month, at 3 o'clock, at the Refuge, and have during the past year prepared the day shirts, night shirts, socks, &c., &c., required by our large and increasing family. The help of any lady at this meeting will be gladly welcomed.

The "Lady Collectors" have rendered most important service during the year, as a glance at our subscription list will show. The Committee feel much indebted to them for their co-operation, and would feel most thankful for similar help in the Old Trafford, Whalley Range, and Longsight districts, where at present we have no collectors.

The "Sunday School Teachers," and "Week Night School Teachers," have again been most constant and self-denying in their attendance at the Refuge and branch Homes. Most heartily do the Committee acknowledge the value of their services and the importance of their work.

To Dr. Braddon, for medical attendance most cheerfully rendered at our Homes for Little Boys, Cheetham; to Dr. Pinder, for similar services in connection with our Girls' branch in Broughton; to Messrs. Broome, Murray, and Co., who again audit the accounts of the institution; to those clergymen or ministers who have given collections in their churches or schools, and to the friends who arranged two concerts and one football match, for the benefit of the institution, the Committee offer their hearty thanks.

Nor must they omit naming the "Lady Friend" who, in addition to many acts of loving service throughout the year, has paid for the furnishing of the new Orphan Home in Cheetham, thus becoming an untold blessing to a family of hitherto destitute ones. In this connection we would acknowledge with many thanks the kindness of those ladies who helped to prepare the various articles required at the new Girls' Home, and new Little Boys' Home.

Finally, the Committee would acknowledge the self-denying labours of their excellent master and matron, Mr. and Mrs. Browne, and the Assistants who aid them, and to the Masters and Matrons of our various branch Homes; most devoted have all been in their several spheres of labour, sowing seed day by day in the hearts of those under their care, which we trust will yield a rich harvest in the future, and entering into our various plans with heartiness and zeal.

A full list of Subscriptions and Gifts is appended on pages 24-47, amongst which we would mention a £10. Christmas gift from Mrs. MacLaren, which provided several useful articles; a sewing machine from the Misses Higgins, for Little Boys' Homes; and framed pictures for all the Homes from Mrs. Clare, as being specially useful.

MEDICAL REPORT.

I am glad to be able to testify to the general good health prevailing amongst the boys during the past year, and the entire absence of any form of infectious disease. One boy has died during the year from hereditary consumption, and I believe one in connection with the Orphan Home, Cheetham,—these being the only cases of death during eight years; and I am sorry to record also that another boy, who had been drafted into the royal navy, has, whilst serving at Plymouth, become consumptive, and has been sent back as incurable.

I feel that I must again state my regret that no sick ward or sanatorium is provided in the Refuge, for the immediate isolation of infectious cases. Sooner or later the danger of being without such a room will be made manifest, immediate isolation being the only means which can be relied upon, in a somewhat over-crowded building, for preventing infectious cases being communicated to others.

The boys are all thoroughly well fed, the establishment perfectly clean and well ventilated, and the ordinary hygienic rules carefully attended to.

ANDREW BOUTFLOWER,
Honorary Surgeon.

With reference to the above Report of our excellent Medical Officer, the Committee do desire to carry out the suggestion, and provide a Sick Ward; but after careful examination, they find that to do so efficiently will involve an outlay of at least £100. We lay this want before the friends of the Institution.

FORM OF LEGACY.

I give and bequeath to the "MANCHESTER AND SALFORD BOYS' REFUGE AND INDUSTRIAL HOME, the sum of £ to be applied to the purposes of the Institution. This sum is to be paid out of such part of my personal estate as I can lawfully charge with it; and a receipt of the Treasurer shall be a sufficient discharge for the same.

FIREWOOD.

Ordinary Bundles 5s. per hundred.
Ditto, dipped in Resin 6s. "

Each Bundle will make three fires.

Fire Lighters 20s. per thousand.

Each one makes a fire.

WE INVITE OUR FRIENDS TO TRY THIS FIREWOOD.

A Post Card with order, addressed to the Master, will have prompt attention.

Donations of useful articles of any description will be most thankfully received. As our boys come to us needing everything, there is hardly any limit to the way in which the work can be helped forward.
