"If you look at the matter selfishly, it is very much your interest to give these Children a lift, because they are exactly at an age when habits of industry and honesty on the one hand, and of idleness and vice on the other, are permanently formed. It is now or never for them. The next two or three years will probably decide whether they are as workers to increase the public wealth, or whether they are to lessen it by living upon it for the rest of their days as paupers, vagrants, or possibly worse."—LORD DERBY at Annual Meeting, January, 1873.

SUMMARY OF ANNUAL MEETING.

The Seventeenth Annual Meeting of the MANCHESTER AND SALFORD BOYS' AND GIRLS' REFUGES AND CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY was held in the Mayor's Parlour, Town Hall, Manchester, on Friday, February 11th, 1887.

His Worship the Mayor (Alderman Curtis) took the Chair at Twelve o'clock noon. Among those present were Canon Woodhouse, Rev. E. Hewlett, Rev. A. Parkinson, Rev. F. B. Meyer (Leicester), F. W. Crossley, J.P., John Thomson, Jeremiah Garnett, J.P., and others.

The Meeting was opened with prayer. The Annual Report was then read by the Hon. Secretary, Mr. LEONARD K. SHAW, after which the chairman made a few commendatory remarks on the work of the past year. Mr. HENRY CHARLTON, Treasurer, read the Financial Statement.

It was then moved by Mr. F. W. CROSSLEY, supported by Rev. E. HEWLETT, and Resolved,—

"That the Report, together with the Financial Statement now read be adopted, printed, and circulated under the direction of the Committee."

It was moved by Rev. F. B. MEYER (Leicester), supported by Mr. JOHN THOMSON, and Resolved,—

"That Mr. LOUIS M. HAYES, of the City of Manchester, Merchant, be and he is hereby appointed a Trustee of the Manchester and Salford Boys' and Girls' Refuges and Children's Aid Society, to act in conjunction with the present Trustees."

It was moved by Mr. JEREMIAH GARNETT, supported by Rev. ARTHUR PARKINSON, and Resolved,—

"That the Committee for the ensuing year be Messrs. R. B. Taylor, L. M. Hayes, Henry Charlton, James Boyd, Gilbert R. Kirlew, and Leonard K. Shaw; that the Treasurer be Mr. Henry Charlton; and the Auditors be Messrs. Theodore Jones, Crewdson, and Youatt.

The above Resolutions were unanimously adopted. This concluded the proceedings of the Annual Meeting, after which followed a Special Meeting of the subscribers and members of the Institution, for the purpose of considering and, if approved, of adopting and confirming a new Trust Deed, prepared by the counsel and solicitors of the Society.

Mr. JOHN THOMSON took the Chair. The Deed was read and explained by Mr. T. L. Farrar, after which the following resolution was proposed by the Chairman, and seconded by Mr. LEONARD K. SHAW:—

"That this meeting approves of the Deed which has been read to the meeting by Mr. Farrar, and hereby adopts and confirms the same, and authorizes Isaac Hoyle, The How, Sedgley Park, Manchester, Esq., M.P., and William John Crossley, of the said City, Engineer, to execute such deed on behalf of themselves and all others, the subscribers and members of the said Society."

The Resolution was passed with the full approval of the meeting.

"Be strong, and of good courage!
The Mighty One and Strong
Will not forsake His children,
Whom He has led so long,
Thy trusted ones may fail thee,
Thine own strength nought avail;
Be strong, and of good courage,
The Lord can never fail."

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE
MANCHESTER AND SALFORD
Boys' & Girls' Refuges & Homes,
AND
CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY,
FOR THE YEAR 1886.

HE Committee of the Manchester and Salford Boys' and Girls' Refuges and Children's Aid Society meet the Subscribers and Friends of the Institution on this its 17th Anniversary, under feelings of deep thankfulness, and also under a sense of solemn responsibility; thankfulness to the Father of Mercies that the large number of children committed to their care have been provided for day by day—have been preserved in health and strength,—and that the various branches of the Institution are under very efficient management, in full and active operation, and fulfilling the end for which they were designed;—and responsibility, lest the great interests committed to their care should in any way suffer through shortcoming on their part.

We believe that never since the foundation of the Institution has there been such manifest tokens of God's blessing upon the work as during the past year. We speak not now of the fact of its great and varied needs being all supplied, nor yet of the progress of the children in both mental and industrial training, though the importance of these can hardly be over-estimated,—but rather of the highest aims and objects of the work, which the Committee keep ever before them, and for which they constantly pray.

The principles which lie at the foundation of the Institution are too well known now to need repetition at any length, the great object is—"to Reclaim, Reform, and Evangelize Homeless and Destitute Children," and in seeking to do this the Committee have adhered to the rules which have guided them all through the past, and which are as follow:—

1. To personally investigate the case of each applicant, so that none but homeless and destitute ones are admitted.
2. To receive such at once, if genuine, without the delay and expense attending election.
3. To receive such irrespective of creed, no question being asked or allowed to be asked on that subject.
4. To see that each one thus admitted receives a sound Mental, Religious but Undenominational, and Industrial Training, and so become fitted for a life of useful honest labour.

These principles and rules have stood the test of years, the Committee are more than ever convinced that they are as sound in theory as they have been successful in practice, and they will not lightly abandon what has won the approval of the best and most thoughtful minds in our community, and above all has received the stamp of Divine approval.

Before proceeding to give the statistics for the year, showing the number of children dealt with, we would briefly enumerate the various divisions which comprise the Institution.

1. The Central Refuge and Industrial Home in Strangeways, the head-quarters, where all applications for admission are received and investigated.
2. The Homes for Little Orphan Children, Boys and Girls, George-street, Cheetham Hill. Six in number.
3. The Homes for Working Boys in Lower Broughton.
4. The Girls' Industrial Home, Heathfield, Lower Broughton.
5. The Emigration Training Home, "Rosen Hallas," Cheetham Hill.
6. The Open All-Night Shelter for Little Wanderers, Major-street, Minshull-street, City.
7. The Boys' Rest and Lodging House, Angel Meadow.
8. The Sea-side Home for Weak and Sickly Children, Lytham.
9. The Training Ship, "Indefatigable," New Ferry, Birkenhead.
10. The Canadian Branch, Ontario, Canada, West.
11. The Industrial and Messenger Brigades, 14, Major-street, City.
12. The Prevention of Cruelty to Children Branch, 14, Major-street, City.

We now give the statistics for the year, showing the number of applicants, the number admitted, and the total number under our care and training, together with the results obtained concerning them.

The year 1886 began with 316 boys and girls under our care in the Central Refuge and Branch Homes. During the year the number of fresh cases that sought our aid were:—

Boys.....	347	} Total.....	455
Girls.....	108
Of this number there were over 10 years
of age			331
Under 10			124

Of this number it was found after close investigation that 283 were, owing to various causes, ineligible for admission; they were dealt with as follows:—

Received temporary help.....	46
Restored to Friends	104
Sent to other Institutions.....	18
Standing over for further investigation...	4
Declined	111

Many of those who were declined received help in other ways, such as admission to Industrial Brigades, &c. This leaves a balance of 172, which being found homeless and destitute were admitted to the Institution.

Their parental condition was as follows:—

Both parents dead	89
One parent living.....	64
Both living	19

Their educational condition showed that there were in Standards—Nil. I. II. III. IV. V. VI.

85 of these were admitted to the Refuge, 62 to the Orphan Homes, and 25 to the Girls' Home.

These 172 added to the 316 in the Institution when the year began, gives a total of 488 under our care and training during the twelve months.

The following are the results concerning them:—

The cost to the public of this large work of Rescue, Clothing, Feeding, Educating, and Emigrating, &c., has been £6,776. 15s. 11d.

A brief word about the various branches will suffice:—

The Central Refuge

Has been an active and busy hive throughout the year, its doors are open from early morning to late at night. Here come the manifold cases needing help; here, together with an active School for those of school age is also carried on the industries of Firewood-making, Shoemaking, Tailoring and Joining, for those of older years. The large yard which is surrounded by the Workshops, Dormitories, and Offices has been improved during the year by the addition of a Gymnasium, the gift of a gentleman who, passing through Manchester, was much struck by the earnest, active tone which prevailed, and which he desired to mark his appreciation of in the above form.

Here was held during the past year the Annual Conference of Christian Workers, which has had such a stimulating effect upon all who were brought under its influence, and which has led to the permanent enlargement of the Lecture Hall.

This Hall, where the usual Sunday and Week-day Services in connection with the Institution are held, is about to become the scene of more active, earnest work still in connection with the Evangelistic efforts which the Committee propose to carry on in the ensuing year.

It will interest the friends of the Institution to know that at the Exhibition which is to mark the present Jubilee year in Manchester, this Institution will have a place; visitors to Old Trafford will there see not only the products of our workshops but their young inmates actively at work.

A few Extracts from our Books will serve as specimens of the 172 cases which have been admitted during the year:—

T. P.—One evening, very late, we had been visiting the lodging houses, and had already come across many poor, homeless street lads whom we longed to rescue. We had just entered one of the most dishonest houses in the district, and were engaged in conversation with some of the poor wretches cowering round the fire, when a voice called us from an inner room, which on entering we found contained a good square bench, upon which, covered with rags, four human beings were trying to rest. Two of them, at any rate, seemed to be asleep; but the owner of the voice we had heard was a shock-headed lad of about fifteen, whose face we had often noticed upon the streets. Poor T. P. had already gone far on the dangerous pathway. His relatives had all been criminals, but both father and mother were now dead, and he lived as he could. After a few hearty words we arranged to meet him the next night for a further chat, the result being that he has now entered the Refuge with an earnest desire to become a useful and honourable member of society, and so far, considering all that has passed, we are astonished at the progress he has made.

B. D., 16 years of age, rather delicate-looking, has tramped the country from Newcastle to London, in every town living the life of a vagrant street arab. His father has been dead many years, and his mother is a very doubtful character. We found him sickening in a Deansgate lodging-house; and with a poor, weak body, emaciated with hunger and neglect, he was only too glad to accept our offer, and is now doing fairly well under our care.

J. S. was a complete orphan. Father dead three years, mother dead just twelve months. An old Manchester Ragged-school boy with a fairly-good character, but the breaking up of the little home had sent Sam into the lodging-houses, and it would not take long at 11 years of age to transfer him into a criminal lad. Happily he came across one of our happy Brigade boys, and was advised to apply to us, which he did, and was at once admitted.

R. A., aged 13, is a fair sample of a difficult case. Having a step-mother who drives him into the street, he has for a long time past slept wherever he could. Found at last by the police officers, he was committed by the magistrates to an Industrial School for vagrancy. From some slight physical defect, however, the doctor would not pass him for actual admission, and the authorities sent him back to his old life. Fortunately, we fell in with the boy, and now he has, at least, a chance which we pray may prove the beginning of better days.

The Homes for Little Orphan Children, at Cheetham Hill, containing 125 fatherless and motherless children, next claim a word. These have continued throughout the year very full and very active, and, notwithstanding the constant anxious care which such a large number of little ones must entail, they have been a source of unalloyed pleasure to all engaged in the work. These are true Orphan Homes, the children being both fatherless and motherless; they are also true family homes, as those who visit them can testify, and the result of this special family training, as seen in those who have gone out from them, is cause for abundant thankfulness.

The following sketches, taken from a History Book, will serve as specimens to show how needy were the cases of the little ones admitted to this branch during the past year:—

"Could you find room for this poor little fellow? He is such a bright boy, it would be such a pity if he were lost."

Such were the words which reached us one day on behalf of G. W., and, when we knew his story they did not reach us in vain, for that story is as sad a one as ever was told us. He never knew his father or mother, but when they died he was handed over to an aunt, whose place should long ago have been in gaol for her cruel neglect of this poor child. The old woman who brought him to us said, speaking of this aunt, "She almost starved the boy, the poor thing's eyes were sunk in his head from sheer want when I got him," and the old body's voice quivered as she spoke. "She moved about from place to place, and in one place the neighbours drummed her out of the street, and cried shame on her for the way she used him." George is now on his way to a happy home in Canada, where the sad past will, we hope, soon be forgotten.

S. and C. K.—Stepmother bad in every way, and well known to the police. The children were kept for the purpose of begging. In all kinds of weather these six-year-old mites were hawking about by day, and were in the worst surroundings by night. Through fear of consequences the woman was induced to hand them over to our care, and sign our usual form for the purpose.

E. and M. R.—These were a very different case from the former one Brought up in a distant town, surrounded with every comfort, their very early days were spent in the lap of luxury, the father occupying a good position, and everything indicating a bright future for the girls. But, alas! death, who is no respecter of persons, visited that home, and removed the head of the family, leaving the mother and seven little children with only a small provision; that was soon got through, and then began a period of helpless struggling on the part of the mother, who seemed to lose all energy and care. The downward course was rapid in the extreme; the help of friends continued for a while, but soon ceased, and a few months ago the large family were found in a single room, just the last stage before the workhouse is reached. What few friends there were, after providing for two of the children, sent us a most piteous appeal on behalf of the others; and thankful we were to be able to receive two, and thus save the grandchildren of a clergyman from the workhouse. Both are now in bright homes in the West.

J. B.—Some two years ago a woman went out from the suburbs of Manchester, promising an early return, and leaving her little boy, whose father was not known, in the care of a neighbour. Month after month the neighbour kept the little fellow, vainly expecting the mother back again; but gradually her true character leaked out. It was found she was bad and worthless. Two other neighbours followed her to where they heard she had gone, but their search was in vain. Still the kind neighbour kept the little fellow until about six months ago, when she died. So little Joe was once more turned adrift—an utterly friendless, helpless little fellow of five years old? The case was brought to our knowledge. We at once decided to admit.

During the past year a very useful addition to this branch of the work has been provided by the gift (by three ladies) of a "Cottage," built in the adjoining grounds, where children needing more special attention than can be given in the over-full homes are received.

Adjoining this is the

Rosen Hallas Emigration Home.

We feel we cannot do better for any children that come under our care than to place them in good farm homes in the great Dominion of Canada, thus removing them completely from old associations of destitution and vice, and giving them a new start under conditions at once healthy and hopeful.

Whatever difference of opinion may exist as to the expediency or otherwise of adult emigration, there can be but one opinion in an overcrowded population such as ours, as to the great benefit that must result from the emigration to our own colonies of young vigorous lives, who otherwise, from their surroundings here, would probably in the future go to swell the pauper and criminal class.

Hence the Committee hailed with thankfulness at the beginning of last year the addition of an Emigration Training Home to the other branches of their work, and as a result have been enabled during the past year to place 62 children in happy homes in our great western dependency.

This number we hope to increase during the coming year if funds for the purpose are placed at our disposal.

Some institutions who deal with our class of children make emigration the leading feature of their work; we do not so, and probably never shall, but we quite hope that by means of emigration wisely and carefully conducted to add at least each year 100 to our rescued and saved ones.

It is the cheapest and most effective way of providing for a homeless and destitute child; such children placed either in our industrial schools or voluntary orphanages at home will cost on an average £18 per annum, and taking the average stay of a child at such institutions at 4 years, it represents a cost to the country of some £70. For one payment of £10, not only the same results can be secured, that is the support, education, and training during early years, but the far greater added result of a prosperous future. We may say in leaving this subject that we have put ourselves into connection with two of the most efficient Receiving and Distributing Homes in Canada, and have made arrangements whereby our children are regularly inspected and reports of each case periodically sent home.

The Two Homes for Working Boys have pursued their course of quiet usefulness throughout the year. 38 lads, once upon the streets, then received into the Central Refuge and finally passed on here, have occupied these Homes during the year; and from which several have gone out into lodgings and become entirely self-supporting, leaving 24 in the Homes at the close of the year.

The Girls' Industrial Home,

Heathfield, Lower Broughton, is an interesting and important branch of the work. Here girls of from 10 to 16 are received and trained for various departments of useful service. The number under training during the past year has been 48, of which 25 have left for situations, leaving 23 in the Home at the close of the year.

Laundry work is carried on very efficiently at this branch, and the girls are also trained in the other departments of household duty.

The next division we notice is

The Shelter for Wandering Children,

SITUATED at 14, Major Street, in the centre of the city. It is an interesting fact that since we met 12 months ago the door of this welcome shelter for poor neglected little wanderers has never been shut. Open night and day, it has afforded shelter for a longer or shorter period to no less than 244 children, of which 97 have been permanently dealt with, while 147 have been restored to their parents or friends after due caution.

The beds at the shelter have been occupied 2,047 times, and 6,621 meals have been supplied during the year. It cannot be too widely known that any person—not policemen and officials only—finding in the streets any poor little neglected wandering children can bring them to this shelter at any hour, and they will be received and cared for, and in due course either restored to their friends, or if friendless, permanently provided for

The Boys' "Rest" and Lodging House,

Angel Meadow, next claims a word. This was the old Public-house spoken of in former reports. It is situated in the midst of the common lodging-houses of the city, and affords what cannot otherwise be obtained in this neighbourhood, a clean bed and comfortable bath and wholesome surroundings, all for 3d. per night. It serves as a stepping-stone to the more permanent Refuge. During the past year the beds have been occupied 3,672 times, being an average of 10 boys per night throughout the year.

The Sea-Side Home at Lytham comes next. This continues an important branch of the work and has proved a great help and blessing, not only to the weak and sickly ones of our Institution, but also to a still larger number of similar children from the courts and alleys of our city, for the Committee desire it to be widely known that they will be happy to receive poor ailing children from any part of the district.

181 children—72 being boys and 109 girls—have enjoyed the benefits of a fortnight's stay at the sea-side by means of this home during the past year. Of these 181, no less than 141 were cases outside our own Institution! It has been a great joy to the Committee to have been thus able to brighten the lives of such a large number of suffering ones, and could our Subscribers have seen the change wrought in such by two or three weeks in a happy home, at the sea-side, they would feel that their contributions to this branch have been abundantly blessed.

Next follows

The Training Ship, "Indefatigable,"

which is popular with all our Subscribers and affords a most useful outlet for such of our boys as desire and are physically fit for a sea-faring life. During the past year we have sent 15 boys to the "Indefatigable," which makes the total thus provided for since the work began 163. The great majority of these are now serving either in the Navy or Merchant Service in various parts of the world. Several have left the ship during the year to go on their first voyage, and the number of Manchester boys on board at the year's close is 25.

The Prevention of Cruelty to Children Branch

requires a word next. The operations of this active branch of the work are carried on at the Shelter, 14, Major-street, City. During the year, the number of cases dealt with was 470. They were brought under our notice from the following various sources:—

The following painful cases point to the great need of this branch:—

Case No. 944.—Willie's mother died 6 years ago; his father, an engine driver, got a woman as housekeeper to look after his home. She was very cruel, and often beat Willie with a leather strap cut into strips; the beating was done when Willie was naked, and to punish him for going out to play she kept him indoors with nothing but a shirt on. His father seldom came home to sleep, as his duty was principally at night. On this occasion, when the father came home, the housekeeper complained to him of Willie—at the time Willie was naked—and his father, who was generally kind to him, lost his temper, apparently through the vicious desire of the housekeeper, and behaved most brutally to Willie, who was bruised all over the body. The father was prosecuted.

Case No. 1087.—Mary, age 13, a fine girl, made application for admission to the Refuge. On investigation it was found Mary's father died many years ago. Her mother married a street musician, who was a low, intemperate man, and got his living by going round and singing at public houses with his wife and an elder sister of Mary's. Mary was often most brutally beaten by her stepfather, and in danger of even worse ill-treatment. On this occasion, for a very slight offence, he ran into the street after her to beat her with a large stick; she sought protection at the police station; her mother being then in a dying state. Mary refused to go back; she was sent to an Industrial School.

Case No. 856.—Mary Ellen, aged 12, was a strong, fine girl. Her father is a good, steady man and a kind parent—a wheelwright by trade—and getting a good living. Her mother died two years ago. Twelve months afterwards her father married again a woman of violent temper, who behaved very cruelly to Mary Ellen, and at times beat her severely, and a few months previous to this Mary Ellen ran away to her grandmother's and stopped a month. On this occasion, because a plate had been put away not properly wiped, the stepmother took her boot and gave Mary Ellen a severe beating with it, causing three severe wounds on the head with the heel of the boot, on which she placed a plaister; two days after this the stepmother took off the plaister, and to cause more suffering, rubbed salt and port wine into the wounds. The child had various bruises over different parts of her body, caused by the step-mother. The stepmother was proceeded against and fined forty shillings and costs. She was unwell at the time or the Bench said they would have sent her to prison. Mary Ellen was placed with her grandmother by her father.

Case No. 658.—Walter was found to be an idiot, perfectly helpless, unable to use either his legs or arms, and needed as much attention or more than an infant; he was obliged to be fed. His father was a decent working man, but suffered very much from bad eyes; he was in the employment of the Local Board. When he was at home the boy was always happy. His mother was a drunkard, and left him for hours, and sometimes for a day at a time while she was out drinking, and then the poor boy's cries were pitiful, and the neighbours often found him in a most filthy state; he was never dressed. This lad was placed in an asylum.

Case No. 743.—Samuel D.—This lad's father had been dead 6 years. His mother is a dissipated drunkard, and not having had any proper training, the boy got into bad habits, and was eventually sent on board the ship "Formidable" for three years. On his return home he got some work to do, but his mother usually spent his earnings in drink, and he was kept without clothing and boots; in consequence he lost his situation. His mother constantly behaved most brutally to him by kicking him with her clogs and beating him with the poker. Was found with very severe bruises made by her with the poker. Proceedings were taken against her, and she was sent to prison. Samuel was admitted into the Boys' and Girls' Central Refuge, Strangeways, and is doing well.

Case No. 1050.—James, aged 8, was found on examination to be covered with severe bruises over his body, head, and arms, caused by his father, who took him out of his bed at eleven o'clock at night in a drunken fit, and beat him most brutally with a leather strap while he was naked, for an offence he had forgiven him two days before. James's mother died six months ago. His father broke out drinking, after being a teetotaler for five years, and destroyed his home and lived a dissipated life. The father was prosecuted, and fined 20s. and 24s. costs.

Case No. 1097.—Annie, aged 3 years, was found being exposed by her mother begging in the streets and public-houses. Took her into custody, and took child to Shelter. Found on inquiry this child had been dragged all over the country, begging from town to town. The mother was sent to prison for fourteen days.

Case No. 793.—Ada L.—This child was the daughter of a man who at one time was a kind parent, but soon after her mother's death, four years ago, he began to drink and mix with bad company, whom he brought to his home, and used to live a debauched, drunken life in the presence of Ada and two other children. On this occasion Ada with two little brothers was found in a most filthy place in a court off Chapel-street, Salford, not fit for a horse. No bed or bedding, and but very little food other than what was given her by the neighbours. She was often cruelly beaten by her father, and on this occasion, while in a drunken state, he took out his pocket knife and threatened to cut her throat. The father was summoned before the court, and sent to prison for a month in default of finding sureties to keep the peace. Ada was committed to Sale Industrial School.

Case No. 888.—John William, aged 11, and Thomas, 9, were continually found in the streets in a most filthy, ragged, and shoeless condition begging. Their parents were both very intemperate people, living off Queen-street, Salford. The father is in constant work, earning 35s. per week. On visiting their home it was found dirty and without furniture, except a small table. On a former occasion these two children were sent by the Salford School Board to the Day Industrial School, but on this occasion they were sent to a Certified Industrial School till sixteen years of age.

The Committee trust that the work of this important branch will be carried on throughout the year with efficiency and harmony. The Police and the Public are becoming more aware of the fact, and it cannot be too widely known that the Night Shelter is always open to receive any cruelly treated child and an Officer and Committee prepared to carefully investigate the case; and they trust that by united action on the part of all, cruelty to helpless little children will ere long practically cease to exist amongst us.

Industrial Brigades.

(For Officers, &c., see page 29.)

How to provide honest useful employment for the large number of boys who run the streets of all our large cities, but who having parents and a so-called home cannot be dealt with as either homeless or destitute by any of the ordinary organisations, has been, and still continues to be an anxious problem to all thoughtful minds. The Industrial Brigade is an honest attempt to solve that problem and to elevate this difficult class.

With this object in view, the Brigades with their four divisions:—the SHOEBLACK, "CAXTON," NEWS, and MESSENGER BRIGADES, have been carried on throughout the year, and have given employment to 223 boys, of which number, no less than 60 have been passed on into regular employment; 10 of these having kept their situations for twelve months, have been awarded a suit of clothes by the Committee. When the difficult class dealt with in these Brigades, and the many inducements to Street life which Street-hawking affords is considered, it will be felt, that these results give cause for thankfulness, for it must never be forgotten that none are admitted to these Brigades but those who are already either actually on the streets or drifting in that direction, and that all that has been done,—though not all that we could desire, is gain to Society. We must here point out that the state of our law acts as an inducement to Street-life and Street-hawking. Instead of the Education Act and The Factory and Workshops Acts dovetailing into each other, so that when a boy leaves the former he could freely enter the latter, there are obstacles to his doing so which often lead to a year's idleness or vagrancy. A boy or girl can leave school at 13, and in these days of high pressure many pass their standards a year or two earlier; but they cannot be employed in a factory or workshop, as a full-timer, until 14.

This is working a large amount of evil, and we trust that the attention of the legislature will soon be called to such an anomaly fraught with so much danger to the rising generation.

The details of the work and financial statement of these Industrial Brigades will be found at page 29 of this report.

The Summer Camp at Llandudno

for poor city boys, which was tried on a small scale in two previous years, was last year a properly organized effort to meet an admitted need, which was to give the poorest boys of our streets and alleys a real holiday under entirely healthy and happy conditions, which would at the same time morally elevate as well as physically strengthen. The inmates of our various Industrial Schools, Orphanages, and Homes have their holiday, and quite right they should. The weak and sickly ones are sent to the Convalescent Homes of Southport and Lytham, and much they need it; but these lads do not come under either denomination, and for them no place was found. A week under canvas by the sea-side, in the summer months, seemed just the thing for healthy boys; it had all the charm which novelty and the sea shore could give, and yet all the discipline which such boys require, for the military idea pervaded the whole camp life.

A very pretty sight, therefore, was our Camp at Craig-y-don, near Llandudno. Tents were pitched June 8th, and struck September 20th; during that period 262 boys had a week's holiday. They came from all quarters of the city recommended by Ragged School Teachers or others, and during their stay made many friends, nor were their higher interests forgotten. The bugle call to prayers, night and morning, was strictly observed and honoured. The Sabbath march to Church, night and morning, never omitted, and the special open-air services at the Camp a time of blessing to many. (For further details see page 34.)

Time only permits a passing allusion :—

1st.—To the Monthly Magazine, "THE CHRISTIAN WORKER," which has for the last seven years been carried on by the Committee in the interests of this Institution, though not of this only—has now been handed over by them to a Company and enters, we trust, upon an extended sphere of usefulness. It appears as a weekly from the 1st January of this year. Its aim will be to record and promote all earnest Christian effort at home and abroad, and the Committee bespeak for it the support of all Christian people.

2nd.—To the Conference on the Evangelization of the World, which met in the Institution on November 9th and 10th. Few who were privileged to be present on these two days will ever forget them—the Lord's presence was powerfully felt, and from that hallowed season many date a new departure in their Christian life and work. The Committee have provided for future gatherings of a similar nature by enlarging the Hall, which failed to accommodate the large number which then met.

Finances.

Little need be said of finances here, the statement now submitted by our Treasurer will shew that the funds required to carry on the varied operations of the Institution have been provided, As last year, so now, He whose work we are seeking to do has sent us the means to do it—the need of the past has been supplied, leaving us a credit balance to begin the new year with.

While thanking Him, the Committee are very sensible of the kindness of their subscribers, collectors, the clergy and ministers who have given collections in their churches, their earnest young friends, and all who have, throughout the past year, relieved those who are carrying on the work from the burden of pecuniary care.

In this connection the Committee must also record how deep is the debt of gratitude which the whole Institution owes to the many devoted friends, without whose valued aid the work of the year could never have been accomplished; to Dr. A. Boutflower, who has the medical care of the Central Refuge; to Dr. Rodger, who fills the same important office to the Six Orphan Homes, Cheetham Hill; to Dr. Pinder, who watches over the Heathfield Home; to Dr. Mann, the hon. dentist; to Messrs. Farrar and Hall, solicitors; to Mr. A. C. Maberly, Q.C., the standing counsel; and to the large number of ladies who, in various departments of the work, and in many ways, are constantly caring for its wants and furthering its interests.

Conclusion.

We have only been able to touch very briefly upon the various divisions of the large work which has grown up under our hands, and to carry on which, on the one hand as a work for the Lord, and on the other on sound business principles, we feel is at once a high honour, a great privilege, and a solemn responsibility.

But we may not rest in the past, as we said last year, so we say now, while much has been done much remains to do. Our own streets by day and by night tell us that there is yet much to do; the statistics of our Police Courts, Reformatories, and Workhouses, all tell us that there is yet much to do. While little children of 5 to 10 years of age are allowed to be turned into little hawkers, and sent on to our streets at night, in all weathers, half-clothed, ill-fed, and uncared for, in order to get money for worthless and vicious parents, there will yet be much to do.

Is it not somewhat of a reflection on Manchester, that she should be behind Liverpool in her care for poor little children. The latter Corporation has passed a bye-law forbidding children under 9 years from hawking on the streets under any circumstances. This was what Manchester asked Parliament to do 4 years ago, and Parliament refused. Liverpool wisely declined to go to Parliament for what she could enact herself, and by so enacting she has conferred an untold blessing on vast numbers of helpless little ones.

Yes, there is much to do, and the time is short in which to do it. We cannot be too often reminded of a solemn fact.—The dangerous classes of the future, those who will be the weakness, the cost, the curse of the community! Where will they come from? Will it not be from the street children; the idle, vagrant, neglected street children of to-day? The thousands of these children all over the country is one great cause of national fear, one great source of national weakness, but by God's blessing and your liberality, change the course of these young lives, and then our fear is changed to hope, and the point of weakness becomes a tower of strength.

This is the work to which we and you are called to-day. Let us in God's name arise and do it.

MEDICAL REPORT, 1887.

I have every reason to express my complete satisfaction with the sanitary condition of the Boys' Refuge, and also with the prompt attention which all my recommendations receive. I must also notice approvingly the care and attention which has been bestowed on the boys by the Master and Mistress. There has been an almost complete immunity from sickness; one or two cases requiring surgical operations I have admitted into the Salford Royal Hospital, under my care, and one case of inflammation of the lungs, which I placed under the care of one of my medical colleagues in that institution, and which terminated satisfactorily. The food, clothing, and sanitary details have all been carefully looked to, and are all that could be wished.

GIFTS TO THE REFUGE AND BRANCH HOMES DURING 1886.

The many useful articles sent during the year, whether for the clothing or the food of the children, or for use in the Homes, have been acknowledged month by month in the pages of "The Christian Worker." This will not be possible in the new issue of the Magazine, but they will be acknowledged by post in all cases where an address is given. The Committee desire to thank all those who have thus shown an interest in our large family and cared for their wants.

Mrs. McLaren's usual Christmas present of £10 was spent this year in counterpanes for our Homes for Working Boys.

The boys have been visited in their homes, and both they and their parents are generally grateful for the benefits they have derived from the Brigades. Permanent situations have been found for some, thus withdrawing them from the streets altogether, and we are glad to say that 10 boys have earned the prize of a suit of clothes given to those who

Examined and found correct, February 23rd, 1887,

P. DRUMMOND.

This was the old Public House spoken of in former Reports. Its doors have been open for all who had got their money for a "doss" as they call it, differing from the Central Refuge, where only the absolutely homeless are received.

During the year the beds have been occupied 3,672 times, and a sum of £40 paid for lodgings.

Much good is done among the lodgers, who of course change from time to time, and real missionary work is done by those in charge.

For a portion of the year evening classes were sustained, but these have fallen off for want of workers.

Boys' Summer Camp, Llandudno.

Extract from Superintendent's letter during the time the Camp was in operation:—

"I have had some grand times with the lads. Many of them join heartily in the prayers and singing of the beautiful hymns on the sheets. 'Stand up for Jesus' is a favourite hymn with us, and 'Pull for the Shore.' I hope the lads may learn whilst they are here not to be ashamed to stand up for Jesus, and trust that they may receive a great and lasting good. It is amusing to hear some of them when first they come up. They speak of the tents as their bedrooms, the sea as 'the cut,' and the waves, when it is rough, as 'a big waterfall.' Of course these are the lads who have not been to the sea-side before."

The following are a few letters selected from those received from boys benefited by the Camp:—

Dear Sir,—I thank you for the pleasant journey we had to Llandudno. I enjoyed myself very much; it was the first time I ever saw the sea, and it was a great treat. My mother thanks you very much for your kindness.—Yours faithfully, JOHN H.

To the Gentlemen of the Refuge Committee,—I, HENRY C. return you my sincere thanks for my week at Llandudno, and I enjoyed myself very well, and would like to have stopped longer, and I have a brother that would like to go very much. He has never been from home.

Dear Sir,—I enjoyed Llandudno very well, and I am both thankful to you and the Committee for the grand out I have had. Mr. Jones was very kind to us, if I could have stayed a little longer it would have made me a deal stronger, because it was doing me such a deal of good.—I enclose this letter from a little friend, WM. H. J.

Dear Friend,—I am now going to tell you how I liked Llandudno. It is a very nice place. Every morning we were on the sea shore. At 10-0 a.m. we had to bathe every morning. At 9 on Sunday we went up Great Orme's Head; there is a path up it. When we came down we had to go to church. On Sunday afternoon a great many people came to look at the camp. At nine at night we had to go to bed. Every time we had to get our meals a bugle would blow. On Monday we went to Happy Valley and saw a lot of niggers who were singing. When we came down we went under the pier catching crabs. When we came out the tide was getting very high. We had a great many games at bat and ball. On Tuesday we played a cricket match. We had to be up at six o'clock in the morning.—I remain, yours truly, JOHN B.

SUBSEQUENT REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT.

At the request of the Committee I present a brief account of our work at the camp during the past summer, and in doing so I beg to say that on the whole the work was very agreeable to me. Encouraged by the confidence and sympathy of the Committee, and the kindly help of many of them, we were thus able to get safely through our first experience of camp life. About 260 boys were at camp during the time I had charge, and I am glad to say that whilst they enjoyed themselves to the full, the conduct and discipline, considering the class of lads, was most creditable, and I am pleased to say that this is the testimony of others besides myself. On several occasions friends have visited us at the camp, and have kindly told how well conducted the lads have been in town, or in attendance at public worship. The holiday was a time of thorough enjoyment to the lads, and many expressions of thankfulness and gratitude were tendered by them on leaving camp to the Committee, for affording them such a grand treat.

The rules prescribed by the Committee were kept as far as possible. The duties the lads had to perform, such as the cleaning of the tents, making of their beds, washing-up, &c., afforded some amusement at times. A guard of four hours at night was kept, and often, as the lads were told off to duty, they were apparently brave and fearless. On several occasions they were put to the test, and in most cases stood their ground well. Once or twice, however, to the immense amusement of the whole camp, the guard have betrayed their bravery and fled for refuge.

Acting on instructions from the Committee, I have visited about two-thirds of the lads at their homes since the camp broke up, and I am glad to report that both parents and lads are still grateful to the Committee for the kindness in sending them to the camp. We are pleased to hear from some parents that the lads are better and stronger in body since they returned home, and we trust, also, that some of them are also better in mind and heart, and that they may ever remember the prayers and loving exhortations of kind friends on their behalf. In our visitation we have often had the appeal made to us of, "Please may I go again," or, "Put my name down for next time."

In conclusion, I again desire to express my thanks to my young colleague (the cook), and all who in any way assisted in the good and pleasurable work of the camp.

GEO. JONES, Superintendent.

SALE OF WORK.

The Annual Sale of Work will be held the first week in December this year. The Committee thank all those who contributed to the success of the Sale last year.—

HOW TO HELP THE WORK!

Write to the "Secretaries," Frances-street, Strangeways, for a

COLLECTING BOX!

And collect what you can by December 31st. We have very pretty boxes.

Or, if you prefer,—

ASK FOR A COLLECTING CARD!

And one will be sent by post; we have them specially prepared, and some friends who desire to collect small sums make very good use of them. Or,—

If you think you can collect £15 in the course of the year, write to the Secretaries, and they will send you the photograph of an Orphan or Homeless Child. It would be a happy thing to feel that you were the means of supporting a poor fatherless one in our Homes.

Or, send us any article that you can spare, and that can be turned into money for the benefit of our work; such as jewelry, pictures, articles of vertu, &c.

Last, but not least, when you see or hear of a poor, wretched, neglected child, don't give it a copper and pass on; stay a minute and inquire into the case, and if you cannot bring it to the Refuge, send us the name and address, and the case shall be visited and, if possible, permanently helped.

And, above all, when enjoying the comforts of your own happy home, breathe a prayer for poor homeless children, and for those who are working amongst them!

LEONARD K. SHAW, } Hon. Secs.
GILBERT R. KIRLEW, }

Donations of Clothing, new or second-hand, or useful articles of any description, will be most thankfully received. As our Children come to us needing everything, and as we have FOURTEEN HOMES to provide for, there is hardly any limit to the way in which the work can be helped forward.
