"If you look at the matter selfishly, it is very much your interest to give these Children a lift, because they are exactly at an age when habits of industry and honesty on the one hand, and of idleness and vice on the other, are permanently formed. It is now or never for them. The next two or three years will probably decide whether they are as workers to increase the public wealth, or whether they are to lessen it by living upon it for the rest of their days as paupers, vagrants, or possibly worse."—LORD DERBY at Annual Meeting, January, 1873.

SUMMARY OF ANNUAL MEETING.

The Eighteenth Annual Meeting of the Manchester and Salford Boys' and Girls' Refuges and Children's Aid Society was held in the Refuge Hall, Strangeways, Manchester, on Wednesday, February 8th, 1888.

Mr. F. W. Crossley, J.P., took the Chair at half-past Seven o'clock. Among those present were Rev. Prebendary Macdonald, M.A., Rev. Benjamin Waugh, Herbert Philips, J.P., Henry Lee, J.P., Jeremiah Garnett, J.P., Alfred Crewdson, J.P., J. C. Stuart, Frank Spence, and others.

The Meeting was opened with prayer. The Annual Report was then read by the Hon. Secretary, Mr. Leonard K. Shaw, and the Financial Statement by the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. H. Charlton, after which the Chairman said a few words of congratulation on the work done during the past year.

It was then moved by Mr. Henry Lee, supported by Mr. Herbert Philips, and Resolved,—

"That the Report, together with the Financial Statement now read be adopted, printed, and circulated under the direction of the Committee. That the Committee for the ensuing year be Messrs. R. B. Taylor, L. M. Hayes, Henry Charlton, James Boyd, Gilbert R. Kirlew, and Leonard K. Shaw; that the Treasurer be Mr. Henry Charlton; and the Auditors be Messrs. Theodore Jones, Crewdson, and Youatt."

This Resolution was adopted unanimously.

The Meeting was then addressed by the Rev. Benjamin Waugh, Secretary of the London Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, on "The Crown and the Child."

"Who ever lost by giving? The sky pours down its rain, Refreshing all things living, While mists rise up again.

- "Who ever lost by loving?

 Though all our hearts we pour;
 Still other spirits moving
 Repay our love with more.
- "And was there e'er a blessing
 That did not turn and rest,—
 A double power possessing—
 The blesser being blest!"

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

MANCHESTER AND SALFORD

Boys' and Girls' Refuges and Homes

AND

CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY,

FOR THE YEAR 1887.

AM increasingly led to the belief that 'Saving the children' should be the motto of philanthropists," are the words of one of the most thoughtful members of the English Parliament, and he adds—"I have found, in cases innumerable, that failure follows all attempts to raise the destitute, until a change of character takes place."

These two sentences express, in few words, at once the belief and the experience of the Committee of the "Manchester and Salford Boys' and Girls' Refuges and Children's Aid Society." They believe no question of the day can compare in importance with that of saving the children,—those who, in the near future, will be either on the one hand a curse, and a source of weakness, or on the other hand a blessing and a tower of strength to the land of their birth. Hence they have carried on for eighteen years this work amongst the poorest and most neglected of a large city population; and this eighteen years' daily and nightly contact with this deeply-interesting and important class has taught those who have not only had eyes to see, but hearts to feel, the force of the other sentence, "that all attempts to raise this class will fail, until a change of character takes place."

It will not be necessary on this the 18th Anniversary of the Institution, to give a detailed account of its various branches, meeting as they do the needs of almost every description of child destitution and misery which exist amongst us. The friends of the Institution gathered here, and the large circle who look forward with interest to this annual record of its operations, will be glad to know that, numerous as are the branches of the work and extended as are its operations, each branch is in healthy and active operation, and fulfilling the end for which it was established.

The Central Refuge, in which we are assembled, to which all applications come in the first instance, where over 100 boys dwell, and where the various Industrial Departments are carried on; the Seven Family Homes for little orphan children; the Homes for Working Boys; the Girls' Industrial Home; the Emigration Training Home; the Open-all-night Shelter for little wanderers; the Boys' Rest and Lodging House; the Sea-side Home for poor weak city children; the Training Ship "Indefatigable"; the Prevention of Cruelty to Children Branch; the Industrial, and Messenger, and Shoe-black Brigades; the Day Nursery for Infant Children; and lastly the Prison Gate Mission. All these the Committee are thankful to report in active operation to-day.

We will first give the statistics for the past year, and such considerations as naturally arise out of them; after which we want to place before our friends some of the special needs of the work at present; and finally, we want to allude to some general questions affecting the welfare of the class with which we deal, and through them of society at large.

The year began with a total number of 343 boys and girls under our care in the Refuge and its branches.

During the year the number of applications for admission were 418.

Their parental condition was as follows:-
Both parents dead	158
One parent living	197
Both parents living	63
	418

Educationally their condition was as follows:—
Standards—Nil. 1. 11. 111. 1v. v. vi. & vii.

49 53 68 100 84 54 10 — 418

Of this number 322 were boys.

96 ,, girls.

Of this total number it was found, after close investigation, that 152 were, owing to various causes, ineligible, and were either restored to friends or declined, 110 received temporary help for one or more days in one or other of the branches of the work; the temporary aid thus given was most important, leading in many cases to their permanent restoration. This left 156 children

72 of these were admitted to Refuge.

72 to Orphan Homes.

12 to the Girls' Industrial Home, Heathfield.

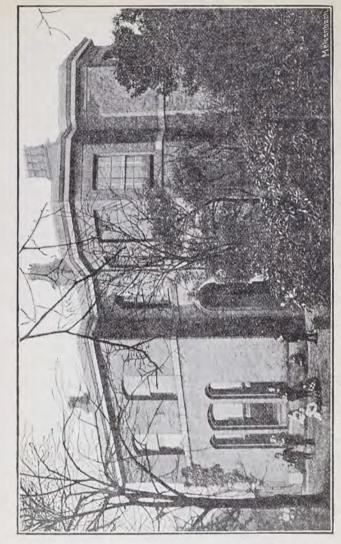

156

These 156, added to the 343 in the Institution and its branches when the year began, gives a total of 499 under care and training during the twelve months.

The following are the results respecting them:—
Placed in situations away from our care... 15
Placed in good homes in Canada... 73
Restored to friends ... 13
Sent to Training ship ... 7
Adopted... 7
To other Institutions ... 8
Died ... 1
Left at own request ... 19
Dismissed ... 10
Leaving under our care and training at the Refuge and its Branches a total of... 346

The following extracts from our History Book will fairly illustrate the cases admitted during the year:—

S. G.—Had been more than twelve months in Manchester. Was an orphan, but had godly relatives in another part of the country, who little knew the depth of unmentionable badness into which the lad had been betrayed by a relative supposed to be respectable. The teaching of the past gave birth to a longing for better things, and the lad ran away from the house of sin and entered our house of refuge, where love and kindness and purity awaited him. Every hope appears now to cluster round him, employed by one of the best firms in the city, and his spare time is spent in seeking those who like himself were lost, but for whom Christ died.

ROSEN HALLAS EMIGRATION TRAINING HOME, CHEETHAM HILL,

J. B.—Was on the verge of ruin, when a merciful providence led her to our door one evening; just turned 16 years, without mother, living apart from her father, who was a worthless, indifferent fellow without a spark of affection for the girl. Taken for a while by an aunt, who, when the girl could only earn small wages, soon found cause for quarrel, and gave her a very plain intimation that she must go. At the end of the week 2s. was handed to her to get herself lodgings and do the best she could. She naturally bent her steps to the lodging-house neighbourhood of Angel Meadow, and there she spent the first night! The next, thank God, was spent under our roof. One more saved from imminent ruin.

W. T.—Came to us bruised and heartbroken. His only home was where a woman lived with whom the father cohabited, and as the man was out at work all day the lad was at this woman's mercy, and she made his life miserable. Suspecting him of theft she savagely beat him and took away his clothes. The father, it appeared, at times was also severely handled by this woman, and he confessed that the woman meant to get rid of the lad and hated him. No brighter boy is in the Refuge to-day than W. T. He is often to be seen about the city, employed by a well-wisher of the home, who declares he never had such a good lad.

At the Orphan Homes, Cheetham Hill,

72 fresh cases were admitted, which, with the 125 in the Homes when the year began, gives a total number of 197 under training during the year at this branch. The two following cases will show the class helped:—

Little Sarah's life.—Though not very far advanced had been a chequered one. The memory of her infant days were associated with constant drinking and quarrelling on the part of her father and mother. At length they separated, neither of them caring what became of Sarah so long as they were relieved of her. A drunken grandmother was the only relative that could be got to take the child, and while this lasted the poor child was sadly neglected. At last, out of pure pity, a decent woman took the child, and for a time things looked brighter, but what was Sarah to her? Bad times came, and of course Sarah must go; workhouse or anywhere, only she must go. Fortunately at this time the case came to the knowledge of the clergyman of the parish, who brought it before us, and without delay the needful help was provided. Sarah is now in a very happy home, our only fear being lest the parents or drunken grandmother should turn up some time. If left alone, Sarah will make a useful girl.

Joe's case was a peculiar one, and was recommended to us by the School Board; he had reached 10 years when he came, and had never been to school! As to father and mother he never knew them. Years ago he just recollected being given to a travelling showman by his mother, and from that time he was hawked about from town to town, chiefly living the life of a publichouse acrobat with all its miserable surroundings. At last, when 10 years old, brighter days dawned, and Joe was at once admitted to the Cheetham Hill Homes. He has settled down wonderfully to the regular routine, going to school every day, and growing very popular with his companions, as, in the evening, whenever he can get the chance unseen, he performs some of his old acrobatic tricks. His bright open face is full of hope for the future, thank God we have rescued this happy, intelligent boy from the wretched life which was before him.

Our limited space forbids our giving further extracts.

The foregoing statistics, however, do not represent, even in figures, the total work of the year. In connection with the Sea-side Home at Lytham,

189 children—96 boys, 93 girls—have enjoyed the benefit of a few weeks' stay at the sea-side. Of this number no less than 157 were cases outside our own Institution. The Committee desire it to be widely known that poor ailing children from any part of the district may have the blessing and happiness which a stay at our Sea-side Home will give, and it has been a great joy to them to have thus been able to brighten the lives of such a large number of suffering ones; the rosy faces of the children on their return from Lytham forming a marked contrast to their pale wan features when they went.

At the Children's Shelter, Major Street, whose doors have never been shut, day or night, since we met twelve months ago, 200 neglected or suffering children have been received. The beds have been occupied 1,271 times, and 4,346 meals have been provided.

This is also the head quarters of the Prevention of Cruelty to Children Branch, which during the year has received and investigated the cases of 716 children, with the following results:—

NATURE OF COMPLAINT.	How DEALT WITH.
Violence	School Teachers Cautioned. Medical Treatment insisted upon Returned to Relatives and Cautioned Reported to Guardians Pending Decision	3 28 28 26 36 10 22 1 7 5 461 3 3 555 26 2
716		716

The following particulars of two cases will show the need of this branch of our operation:—

Case No. 1417.—This quiet, inoffensive boy of 12 years old was, on the death of his mother, left to the tender mercies of a heartless father. He was brought to us in a sad state one night, he had been assaulted by his father, who had cut open his head with the buckle of a strap. The case being proved in court, the father was bound over in £10 to keep peace and pay costs. We cannot but think that the real ends of justice would have been better served if the magistrates had ordered the fellow ten strokes of the lash in addition.

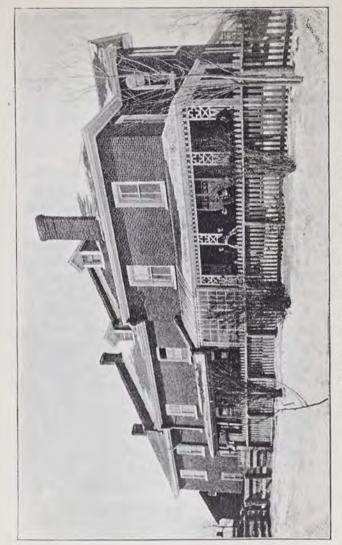

Case No. 1643.—Two boys, 7 and 9 years, found in a house of infamy in a shockingly neglected state by a police constable. Mother was arrested, and children brought to Open-All-Night Shelter. Case proved. Mother sent to prison for a month, and children sent to Barnes Home Industrial School.

The Committee desire it to be widely known that any person finding neglected wandering little ones, at any hour, may bring them to this "Shelter," where they will be received and cared for; and all who know of children being illused or abused at the hands of either parents or others, are earnestly desired to send information to the same place, where the case will be at once investigated by an experienced officer.

Canadian Homes for our Street Children.

No branch of the work of the Institution has given the Committee more satisfaction than that of placing healthy, hopeful children, with dangerous surroundings here, in carefully-selected homes in Canada.

We are in connection with the Marchmont Distributing Home, at Belleville, Ontario, where, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, whose long experience in the work inspires all who meet them with confidence, our children are wisely placed and also regularly and carefully inspected.

We have now over three hundred children in Canada, and we hope to add one hundred to that number this year. The total for thus providing for a child is £10; and those who contribute this amount for any special child have the satisfaction of knowing that the one payment practically provides for the child for life.

The Industrial Brigades,

In connection with this Institution, is an effort to provide useful employment for a number of boys, in all large cities, who have parents and a home of some kind, and therefore not eligible for an Institution, but owing to want of work are in danger of becoming street boys.

During the year about 200 boys have been thus employed, many of them in connection with the Exhibition, and by means of this Brigade have been helped to permanent employment. The Messenger Brigade and the Shoe-black Brigade have been most active throughout the year. The result of their work amounted to £898. os. $3\frac{1}{2}$ d., which, after paying their wages and all expenses, £864. 12s. 8d., left a credit balance of £33. 7s. $7\frac{1}{2}$ d., as per balance sheet (see page 27). May we be speak for the Messenger Brigade, which has this year been enlarged and reconstituted, the liberal support of our friends. It is confidently believed that the boys, who have been most carefully selected, will prove a valuable acquisition in the city.

The Boys' Rest, in Angel Meadow, has been used throughout the year by a number of boys, and the beds have been occupied 1,572 times.

At the Day Nursery, Butler Street,

Which came into the hands of the Committee on October 1st, last year, there has been 1196 attendances of little ones, who have been fed and lovingly cared for during the day, being an average of 92 per week, and the average is steadily rising. Lastly,

At the Prison Gate Mission, the most recently established branch in connection with our Institution, we have dealt with 3,045 prisoners—2,087 men and 958 women—from September 5th to December 31st, this large number from the adjoining gaol having voluntarily accepted the invitation given at the gate each morning to a cup of coffee and a friendly word. Of this number 15 young women have entered Homes, 15 have been restored to their parents, 10 have been helped to employment, and 647 have signed the pledge.

These last four branches, while partially selfsupporting, as in two of them—the Boys' Rest and the Day Nursery—a small charge is made to those who use them, each add more or less to the cost of the year.

The total cost of this large work of Rescue, Clothing, Feeding, Educating, and Emigrating has been £9,866.13s.3d. £7,886. 10s. 8d. of this has come from the public, the balance, £1,980. 2s. 7d., has been provided by the earnings of the boys and girls.

This is the work of the year which has just closed, so far as bare statistics can give it. Those who know anything practically of the working of such an institution will know how feebly any mere figures can convey a comprehensive estimate of the extent of the work involved. Very frequently hours are spent on a case before it is brought under our roof—before even the preliminary work of cleansing and training can begin. And, as frequently, hours are spent over cases that never are admitted and of which no record can be kept. But these preliminary investigations must be carefully made, for they lie at the very foundation of our work. Thus only are the real conditions of a case ascertained, and the genuine separated from the false.

The principles which have guided the work from the beginning continue without change. They are—First: The Institution is for orphan, homeless, and destitute children. None else are admitted. Second: Such cases are received at once, if genuine, without the delay and expense attending election. Third: Such cases are received irrespective of creed, no question being asked, or allowed to be asked, on this subject. Fourth: Each one thus admitted receives a sound mental, religious (but undenominational), and industrial training, to fit them for a life of honest labour. They are summed up in the first Trust Deed of the Institution, where the object is declared to be—"To Reclaim, to Reform, and to Evangelize homeless and destitute children."

Of late these principles have been called in question by a class of the community who for years neglected their own poor, and suddenly awoke to the fact that others were supplying their shortcomings. Modesty and good-taste alike generally leads those who become sensible of their own neglect to thank those who have been doing the work, but, on the contrary, we and other Institutions in the city have been rudely assailed, the basest and most unworthy motives attributed; and we have been called upon to hand over to others boys and girls who had voluntarily sought our aid. The Committee have resolved that under no circumstances will they depart from the principles which have guided the Institution from its commencement, and for the information of their subscribers and to remove all misunderstandings, they desire on this special point to explain what their practise has ever been.

When children of tender years are brought to us, and those who bring them state that they are not Protestants, we invariably recommend them to apply at Roman Catholic Institutions. But if no such statement is voluntarily made by those who bring little children, or volunteered by elder boys and girls who apply themselves for admission, then the question of creed is never raised. The Committee hold it no part of their duty to catechise poor wandering children as to their church or creed. The question is, are they friendless, homeless, and destitute? As such they have applied in their hour of need, and as such only are they received. And when thus admitted, no compulsion or restraint of any kind is used. The Institution is voluntary both without and within. If the training, discipline, and care is in any way uncongenial to the inmates, they are at all times free to leave; the charge, therefore, of proselytism is as groundless as it is unworthy. Those who would thus narrow simple acts of Christian charity down to a question of sects and creed have yet to learn the first principles of its Founder. Such are seeking to drag us back to the bigotry and intolerance of the dark ages. But the broad and liberal principles on which this Institution is founded are dear to the hearts of the Committee and Trustees, and their supporters may rest assured that they will not depart from them.

Special Wants.

Large though the work is, it is not yet complete. The Committee have of late felt the need of consolidating the Working Boys' Homes, at present in Lower Broughton, and bringing them nearer to the Central Refuge.

In connection with these, they desire also to establish a Lads' Club, where healthy intercourse, recreation, and educational classes may be carried on, as they feel the importance of continuing to influence the large number of elder lads who have left and are from time to time leaving the Institution.

A Home for Poor Crippled Children is also much needed; they have a few such in the Institution at present, but they need special treatment, and the Committee have had to decline similar cases which they would fain help. Larger premises are also required for the Prison Gate Mission. The importance of this work may be slightly estimated from the fact that within a few yards of this Institution is one of the largest gaols in England, and that every year over 20,000 prisoners are discharged from its cells, the greater bulk of whom pass our very door. Amongst that vast number, there is alas! a certain proportion of boys and girls, young men and young women, whom we cannot but feel have a special claim upon us in that critical hour when, leaving the prison gate, they have to face the want and temptation of a cold world.

All these needs would be supplied by the securing of the seven houses fronting the Institution in Great Ducie-street, towards the cost the Committee have about £1,000 available, but to complete that purchase and to make the necessary alterations and fitting-up, £4,000 more is required. We ask with the fullest confidence for this sum, assured that the Lord, for whose work it is required, will supply it by the means of His Stewards.

There are other wants which would be a great help in the work of prevention and reclamation, in which we are engaged. We mean a Certified Industrial School for Boys, and a Certified Home for Girls, for cases under the Industrial Schools Act Amendment Act (Miss Ellice Hopkins). When these branches are added, the chain of wise and loving charity provided by this Institution will be complete.

The year just closed will be remembered with thankfulness by the Committee as one when more than ever before tokens of spiritual blessing have rested on the work. A remarkable change has taken place in several of the elder lads, who are now a Christian band living a holy and consistent life, and seeking not only the conversion of their companions, but are actively carrying on Mission work amongst the lodging houses of the neighbourhood.

The Committee also recall with gratitude the fact that the Refuge Stall at the Exhibition, where the four industries—Joinering, Shoe Making, Tailoring, and Firewood Making—were carried on, and which was such a constant object of interest to thousands of visitors, was during the entire period under the care of our boys, without the presence of any foreman, and without a single complaint from the authorities.

Nor when recalling causes for gratitude can the Committee fail to acknowledge the liberality of those who have again supplied the means of carrying on this large work. Once or twice during the year they felt a little anxious, some usual contributions being delayed, but at the year's close the Master's question to the disciples came home to us: "Lacked ye anything? and they answered, nothing."

But it is not to Subscribers only that we owe thanks, there are gifts more valuable than silver and gold, and if we do not name those, Medical men and others, who have so long rendered devoted service, they are not the less valued.

The Annual Conference of Christian Workers, which met as usual in the Refuge Hall and adjoining rooms in the month of November, was largely attended, the subjects being—"The Coming of the Lord," and "The Deepening of Spiritual Life." Some of the most eminent men in the kingdom took part in the meetings, which were seasons of blessing to many.

The weekly issue of The Christian Worker has closed with the year, there not being an adequate return for the great labour and expense involved; henceforth it will be issued Monthly, and the Committee trust that all whose ears and hearts have heard "The Cry of the Children" will do all in their power to increase its circulation.

And now, ere we close, we must place on record some of the evils which still hinder all efforts to prevent and diminish juvenile suffering and crime. Foremost amonst these we must again place

Juvenile Street-hawking.

It is now ten years since we first called attention to this subject by issuing a pamphlet entitled "Street Arabism: its Cause and Cure." The facts and figures therein stated attracted considerable attention. Various public bodies in our midst took them into consideration, and the unanimous resolution of the city and county justices echoed the demand which we then made that the practice of allowing young children to hawk in our public streets at unreasonable hours, exposing them to most serious physical and moral evil, was fraught with greatest danger to the community, and should be legally prohibited. Various deputations waited upon the Government; promises of inquiry and legislation followed, but nothing practical resulted until five years ago, when clauses were inserted in the Manchester Corporation Bill, of that year, asking that little children under 10 years of age should be prohibited from streethawking, and that those under 14 should be protected from undue hours. Notwithstanding the overwhelming evidence which was given before the Select Committee appointed to examine the subject, and that crowded meetings in our various town halls demanded that little children under 10 years of age should be protected from this great evil, the clause protecting them was struck out.

The result is the evil is only very slightly abated, and hundreds of children are annually brought up at our police courts and committed to our common gaols who have taken their first lessons in vagrancy, gambling, and crime, under cover of street hawking.

How long will our legislators be blind to the fact, patent to every thoughtful mind, that, until this great evil is effectively checked, our gaols will continue to be recruited from the ranks of juvenile street hawkers.

Another great evil to the State, and also a cruel wrong to the children of the poor, is that no provision is made during the School period to provide our boys and girls with a handicraft or means of gaining an honest living when book-learning ceases. We seem to have ignored the fact that our poor children have hands as well as heads, and that it is chiefly by means of the former rather than the latter that they are to live in the future. Our excellent system of Elementary Education has this great defect, that it only provides for one-half of the child, and numbers of the poorest children leave School utterly unfit for any useful employment, and, consequently, they soon drift on to the streets and lose whatever learning they had obtained. The Factory and Workshops Act, which forbids employment as full-timers until 14 years of age, while children can leave School at 13, tends to encourage this, and so helps to swell the army of paupers and criminals.

We entirely agree with that thoughtful and farseeing Member of Parliament whose words we have before quoted, Samuel Smith, of Liverpool, that it is at this point that the State should intervene, and save those unfortunate children from the curse of idleness and parental neglect. We endorse most heartily his recommendation: "That the State should provide a system of simple industrial training in night schools for such children up to 16 years of age, and make the attendance compulsory, unless they are in regular employment."

Time and space alike forbid our dwelling upon another great evil, that resulting from the influence of vicious parents. In our Report for 1884, we asked: "Shall parents be allowed to ruin their own children; have parental rights and control no limits?" The question needs to be asked still. Numbers of children in our Voluntary and Certified Schools and Homes are being ruined, and the efforts of these beneficent Institutions defeated by the influence of vicious and worthless parents. The recommendation of the Royal Commission, presided over by Lord Aberdare, needs to be enforced: "That parents, who, by their vicious example and neglect, cause their children to be brought up at the expense of the State, should thereby forfeit the power of control, and should be prevented from undoing the work of reclamation which has been done." Meantime, those who theorise on this question tell us that in caring for such children we are offering a premium to their worthless parents. To such we say, we will help you all we can to compel those parents to do their duty, and, if they will not, to prevent them by law from ruining their children; but, meanwhile, if you tell us, in the face of a child that is being lost, "Don't stretch out a hand to save that child, lest in so doing you relieve the worthless parent," we say, "No, we cannot follow such advice. It is not the will of our Father in heaven that one of these little ones should perish." Left to the influences at present surrounding them, their ruin is certain. But if, realising this fact, we resolutely step in and, with a wise but firm hand rescue the perishing, we shall be doing His will Who came "To seek and to save that which was lost."

We rejoice to welcome on our platform to-day one whose pen and whose voice have long been used in earnest stirring tones on behalf of suffering children. We wish Benjamin Waugh, and all other earnest workers in this holy cause, a hearty God-speed.

We close as we began. Of all the questions which claim, and press their claims, upon us to-day, none, we believe, can compare in importance with that of the children. The millions of Britain's children whose characters are now forming for weal or for woe!

If we rise to this great question, and amid all the efforts that sanctified Christian energy are putting forth to relieve and elevate suffering humanity, we give it the place its supreme importance demands, then the seed we sow by constant prayerful persevering and determined effort shall bear a glorious harvest, and the day is coming when they that have sown and they that reap shall rejoice together.

CENTRAL REFUGE,

STRANGEWAYS, February 8th, 1888.

MEDICAL REPORT, 1888.

I have every reason to express my complete satisfaction with the sanitary condition of the Boys' Refuge, and also with the prompt attention which all my recommendations receive. I must also notice approvingly the care and attention which has been bestowed on the boys by the Master and Matron. The food, clothing, and sanitary details have been carefully looked to, and are all that could be wished.

ANDREW BOUTFLOWER,

Honorary Surgeon.

GIFTS TO THE REFUGE AND BRANCH HOMES DURING 1887.

The many useful articles sent during the year, whether for the clothing, the food, or for the instruction of the children, or for use in the Homes, have been acknowledged by post in all cases where an address is given. The Committee desire to thank all those who have thus shown an interest in our large family and cared for their wants.

Mrs. Mc.Laren's usual Christmas present of £10 was spent this year in overcoats for the boys at the Orphan Homes.

SALE OF WORK.

The Annual Sale of Work will be held the First Friday in December this year. The Committee thank all those who contributed to the success of the Sale last year.—(See page 61.)

BRANCH COMMITTEES.

These Branch Committees are appointed by the General Committee immediately after its own election by the Subscribers each year.

They undertake the working of the special branches allotted to them under the direction of the General Committee, who should sanction all expenditure, and with whom financial responsibility rests.

HOW TO HELP THE WORK!

Write to the "Secretaries," Frances-street, Strangeways, for a

COLLECTING BOX!

And collect what you can by December 31st. We have very pretty boxes.

Or, if you prefer,-

ASK FOR A COLLECTING CARD!

And one will be sent by post; we have them specially prepared, and some friends who desire to collect small sums make very good use of them. Or,—

If you think you can collect £15 in the course of the year, write to the Secretaries, and they will send you the photograph of an Orphan or Homeless Child. It would be a happy thing to feel that you were the means of supporting a poor fatherless one in our Homes.

Or, send us any article that you can spare, and that can be turned into money for the benefit of our work; such as jewellery, pictures, articles of virtu, &c.

Last, but not least, when you see or hear of a poor, wretched, neglected child, don't give it a copper and pass on; stay a minute and inquire into the case, and if you cannot bring it to the Refuge, send us the name and address, and the case shall be visited and, if possible, permanently helped.

And, above all, when enjoying the comforts of your own happy home, breathe a prayer for poor homeless children, and for those who are working amongst them!

LEONARD K. SHAW, GILBERT R. KIRLEW, Hon. Secs.

SHOEMAKING & TAILORING

IN ALL THEIR BRANCHES.

A Post Card, with Orders, addressed to "The Master, Boys' Refuge, Srrangeways," will have prompt attention.

Samples of the products of our workshops may be seen at the Refuge Depot, 78, Great Ducie Street, Strangeways, where the Committee invite a call.

FORM OF LEGACY.

I bequeath to the "Manchester and Salford Boys' and Girls' Refuges and Children's Aid Society" established in Manchester, the sum of £ free of legacy duty, to be paid together with the duty thereon out of such part of my estate as can be lawfully bequeathed for charitable purposes and in priority to all other payments thereout and to be applicable for the general purposes of such Society, and I declare that the receipt of the Treasurer or other proper officer for the time being of the said Society shall be a sufficient discharge for the same.

Donations of Clothing, new or second-hand, or useful articles of any description, will be most thankfully received. As our Children come to us needing everything, and as we have SIXTEEN HOMES to provide for, there is hardly any limit to the way in which the work can be helped forward.

£100 per week required to carry on the various operations of the Institution.
