From the Society

“These Homes are based upon Christian principles, they are managed by practical methods, and are doing a great work for all the Churches. They are doing the work of ten societies, and are in danger of only receiving the support of one.”—THE LORD BISHOP OF MANCHESTER at the Annual Meeting, 1892.

SUMMARY OF ANNUAL MEETING.

The twenty-third Annual Meeting of the MANCHESTER AND SALFORD BOYS' AND GIRLS' REFUGES AND HOMES AND CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY, was held in the Mayor's Parlour, Town Hall, on Tuesday, March 28th, 1893.

His Worship the Mayor (Alderman A. Marshall) took the chair at 3 o'clock. Amongst those present were the Very Reverend the Dean of Manchester, Henry Lee, Esq., J.P., W. J. Crossley, Esq., Fredk. Platt-Higgins, Esq., J.P., W. J. Galloway, Esq., Councillor Fildes, Dr. Boutflower, Henry Charlton, Esq., H. B. Harrison, Esq., J.P., Rev. Samuel Pearson, M. A., Rev. Robert Wallace, R. B. Taylor, Esq., L. M. Hayes, Esq., &c.

There was a large attendance, which included 60 lads who were on the eve of departing from the Homes to Canada.

The Annual Report was taken as read by the Hon. Secretary, Mr. Leonard K. Shaw, and the Financial Statement abstract by the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. Henry Charlton.

It was then moved by Henry Lee, Esq., J.P., and seconded by Fredk. Platt-Higgins, Esq., J.P., and resolved:

“That the Report, together with the Financial Statement, be adopted, printed and circulated, under the direction of the Committee.”

It was also moved by the Very Reverend the Dean of Manchester, seconded by the Rev. Samuel Pearson, M.A., supported by H. B. Harrison, Esq., and resolved:—

“That the Committee for the ensuing year be, Messrs. W. J. Crossley, John Thomson, J. C. Stuart, R. B. Taylor, L. M. Hayes, G. R. Kirlew, James Boyd, and T. R. Ackroyd; the Secretary, Mr. Leonard K. Shaw, the Treasurer, Mr. Henry Charlton, and the Auditors, Messrs. Theodore Jones, Crewdson and Youatt.”

The Meeting closed with the Benediction.

Pour forth the oil,—pour boldly forth :
It will not fail until Thou fairest vessels to provide
Which it may largely fill.

Make channels for the streams of love,
Where they may broadly run ;
And love has overflowing streams,
To fill them everyone.

But if at any time we cease
Such channels to provide,
The very founts of love for us
Will soon be parched and dried.

For we must share, if we would keep,
That blessing from above :
Ceasing to give we cease to have ;—
Such is the law of love.

TWENTY-THIRD ANNIVERSARY.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

MANCHESTER AND SALFORD

Boys' and Girls' Refuges and Homes,

AND

CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY,

FOR THE YEAR 1892.

IN presenting to the friends and supporters of the Manchester and Salford Boys' and Girls' Refuges and Children's Aid Society, the twenty-third annual record of its operations, the Committee have much satisfaction in reporting that the various branches of the charity have been maintained in full efficiency, and that the results of the year's work, shew a larger number of destitute ones provided for, of weak and suffering ones succoured and relieved, of cruelly used ones protected, and of young lives aided, and fitted for fighting the battle of life, than in any former year.

Before dealing with the actual statistics of the year we regret that the hope expressed in last year's report, when speaking of the plot of land at the top of Frances Street,—“A year hence we hope to report enlarged workshops, new laundry, and increased breathing space so sorely needed,”—has not been realised.

Owing to various causes the work could not be begun until August last, and the severe winter which speedily followed, hindered operations. The work, however, is now rapidly approaching completion and we hope to begin the second half of this year under conditions more favourable than any we have ever yet worked under. Until this whole scheme is complete, which will give to the Central Refuge, what has been so long needed (in addition to the improvements named above) better social and evening arrangements for the elevation of the boys: the work has to go on under more or less of difficulty.

The Present Scope and Operations of the Charity.

For the information of some friends of the work, even in our own city, as well as of many outside its limits, who do not realise the extent and variety of its operations we append a list of the various branches.

By means of these various branches, the Institution has received and dealt with a total number of 2,105 children in various degrees of need and suffering, during the past year; as follows:—

While in addition to these, the number of cases investigated and children protected by the Prevention of Cruelty to Children Branch, was 375 cases, involving the welfare of 1324 children.

The number of boys working in the Messenger and Parcel Brigade was 176.

The number of attendances at the Day Nursery was 3332; Fees paid by the mothers £25 10s. 5d.

And at the Prison Gate Mission, the number of discharged prisoners who accepted the invitation given each morning at the Gate, and came to the Mission Room was 9055.

These four branches are enumerated separately, as the children are not dealt with domestically, they do not dwell under our roofs, at the same time the work done for them has been most important.

These large figures shew the total number either entirely provided for, or helped during the year.

We now come to deal with the new cases which sought our aid during the year, and with those actually admitted in the same period.

The fresh applicants for admission numbered 478

Boys 372. Girls 106.

Of these there were under 10 years of age ... 66

Adding these 281 fresh cases thus permanently admitted to the 419 in the Refuges and Homes when the year began and 13 re-admissions, we have a total of 713 under permanent care and training during the year 1892.

The results concerning them at the year's close were as follows:—

Having enumerated the various branches of the work it will not be necessary to refer to each in detail, in every division activity prevails, and while the special needs and circumstances of some departments may require a more than passing word, and thus appear to give them an undue prominence; the regular, and in all respects, most important work, of seeking out the poorest, most suffering, most neglected, as well as the wayward and erring, who are found drifting down life's highway to a hopeless if not criminal future, and having rescued such, placing them in permanent homes for the training and education necessary to fit them for the battle of life, has gone on day by day throughout the year without intermission.

At the Strangeways Group of Homes,

Which comprise

THE CENTRAL REFUGE,—with its five active and well equipped workshops, viz.—Joinering, Shoemaking, Tailoring, Letterpress Printing, and Firewood making.

THE WORKING LADS' HOME AND INSTITUTE,—fitted up with all the requisites for carrying on among the elder lads the work begun in the adjoining Refuge.

THE BRIGADE BOYS' HOME AND

THE BOYS' EMIGRATION TRAINING HOME.

There has been some changes in management during the past year, Mr. and Mrs. Stephens, who have been for several years in the work, having decided to emigrate to California, where they are followed by the good wishes of the Committee.

Mr. and Mrs. King formerly at the Central Refuge have taken charge of the Emigration Training Home.

The chief position at the Central Refuge has been filled by the appointment of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Wood, of Brighton, whom the Committee selected from a large number of applicants, and from whose energy and wholehearted devotion to the work they anticipate the happiest results.

The vacancy at the Institute was filled by the appointment of Mr. and Mrs. Rushton. In these changes the Committee trust they have had, as they sought, the Lord's guiding hand, and that the results in each case will justify the wisdom of their choice.

The Cheetham Hill Group.

The other centre of operations is at Cheetham Hill, where are

THE SIX HOMES FOR ORPHAN CHILDREN,—wherein 160 fatherless and motherless Boys and Girls have been cared for during the year.

THE GIRLS' EMIGRATION TRAINING HOME AND LAUNDRY, Rosen Hallas, where 76 girls have been under training.

THE BETHESDA HOME,—for Crippled and Incurable Children, Boys and Girls, where 40 suffering ones have been nursed and tended.

THE CONVALESCENT COTTAGE,—for ailing children.

Each of these interesting branches have been very full and active throughout the year! Two additional rooms and a new laundry have been added to the Rosen Hallas house, these have been rendered necessary by the increasing number of girls seeking and needing its help, and by the extent of the laundry work carried on there. The washing, etc., for all the Cheetham Hill Homes being done at this house.

Apart from these two centres, and situated in the heart of the city, is which has received during the year for longer or shorter periods 368 little wanderers, no less than 109 of whom were brought in between 10 o'clock at night and 4 o'clock in the morning.

The beds at this Shelter were occupied 1962 times, And the number of meals provided were 5861.

Here also is the head quarters of the Manchester and Salford Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, which for several years has been an active branch of the Strangeways Institution, the adjoining Shelter affording that prompt and efficient aid which such cases so frequently require. During the year 375 cases involving the welfare of 1324 children were reported, investigated, and dealt with.

Of these 375 cases we carried 40 into court, and obtained convictions in no less than 37! a proportion we believe, not exceeded by any similar society in the kingdom! The punishment ranging from one to fifteen months.

The following are outlines of a few of them.

A BABY GIRL STARVED TO DEATH.—This was a case received at our Shelter during the past year. When brought in it had the appearance of being almost a skeleton, the skin hanging in wrinkles on its poor little bones, the weight of a child 15 months, should be 20lbs., but this child only weighed 11lbs! The poor helpless thing was frequently left under the slopstone in the scullery by the brutal drunken mother, and was a pitiable sight when brought to us, the fact was, she was illegitimate and not wanted!

We at once applied for a warrant for the mother, and had the satisfaction of seeing her sent to prison for a month with hard labour, while the poor child was placed in the workhouse hospital, where she has since died! Had this happened before the child left the mother's hands it is probable she would have stood in the dock on a very grave charge.

THE CASE OF FRANK.—A 12 year old boy—though outwardly not so revolting as the former, was really one of shameful neglect on the part of a drunken mother, and therefore we took it into court and had her sent to gaol for 3 months. One cold wet night this poor suffering boy, in a high fever, was found lying on an old mattress entirely naked, and the window open! Our officer goes on to state "That both the mattress and the boy were swarming with vermin. There was no food in the house and the miserable room in which the child lay was not only dirty in the extreme, but was filled with a horrible smell, which made human life in the place almost a miracle." And yet this was not a case of poverty, the woman had money allowed her sufficient for her children's need, but she drank it!

Three months in gaol was not a day too much for her, we cared for the boy meantime.

TORTURING A CHILD WITH A RED-HOT POKER!—Yet this was actually done only a few weeks ago by a brute of a stepfather. Immediately on information reaching us that something was wrong, our officer went to the house, a few miles away, and there found the true state of the case. The poor little body was shamefully marked in several places. We at once had the child removed to our Homes, where he has won the hearts of all, and where he still remains. As to the fellow who so tortured his helpless little one, we had him committed to the sessions where he was sentenced to 18 months imprisonment with hard labour.

NEWHAM WAS A TRADESMAN in fair circumstances who took to drink when his wife died, then lost his business, had to seek work as a journeyman which he soon got earning 38/- a week, but notwithstanding many warnings the drinking continued, and when our officer entered the house he found it almost empty. The children, of whom unfortunately he had three, were in a wretched and dirty condition, the head of the youngest being literally eaten into holes with vermin!

There was no food in the house, and the children had had none for three days, except what neighbours gave them.

As there was no mother to care for them, we had the children sent to a certified industrial school where for a few years they will be properly cared for, and the man sent to prison for two months with hard labour for his shameful neglect.

THE FOLLOWING CASES ARE TYPICAL, and frequent, but as they involve much suffering, and often permanent injury to the children we have resolved in every case to punish with the utmost rigour of the law.

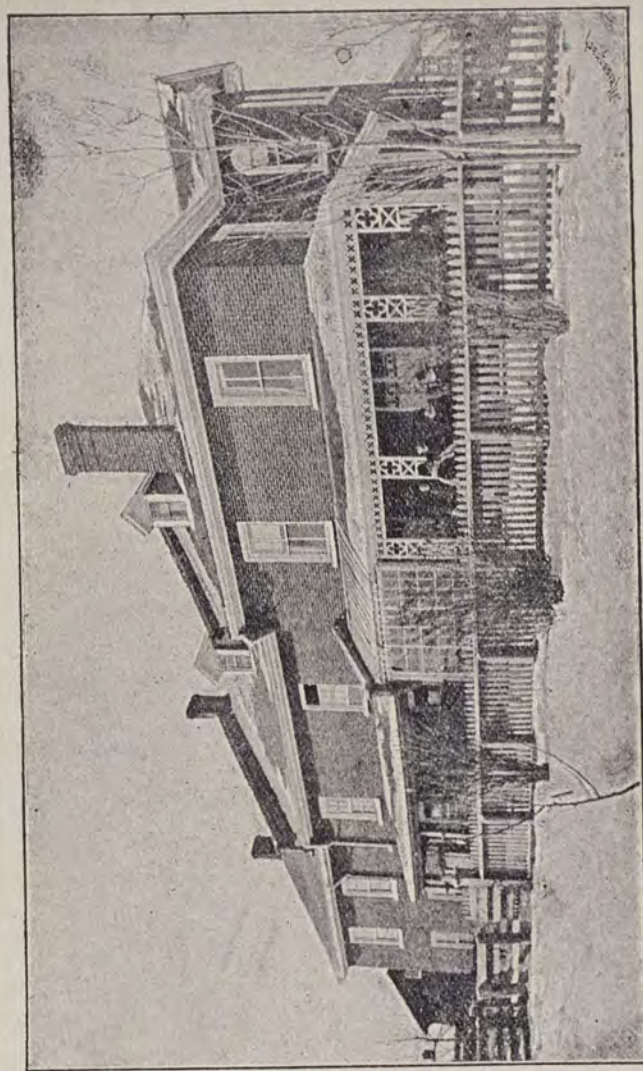

Five Children, ages $1\frac{1}{2}$ to 11 years, are found in a dirty little house in Openshaw, they are almost naked, their bodies in a filthy state, their hair being matted together and filled with vermin, no food in the house. We naturally expected to find the father a poor struggling man; on the contrary he earns 30/- to 35/- per week, comes home in the evening, dresses himself and goes out, not returning until late, leaving his children in want and misery. We hope the month's imprisonment which we were the means of giving him will lead him to alter his life, otherwise we must ask for more.

Another family of five neglected children, ages three months to eight years, next meets our eye. In this case there was a mother, a sober, deserving woman, but with a brute of a husband, who not only illused her when under the influence of drink, but also so neglected and illused the children that when we put the fellow in the dock the court endorsed our action, by ordering him to gaol for three months with hard labour!

Yet another where there are four children all young, but all in a wretched state of filth and need owing to the father's drinking habits. Again it is not poverty but cruel neglect, which leaves those children almost naked, without bed, only straw to lie on, and with no covering at night, save the rags they stood in! As we had before cautioned his man he was now committed for two months with hard labour.

Others of the cases are unfit for publication.

Our subscribers and the public generally will be glad to know that the Committee are taking the most vigorous steps to carry out the provisions of the Act of 1889—first, in preventing the cruelty, and secondly in punishing, with all the sternness the law allows, those who commit it. Our officers are constantly on the alert, they are daily in communication with the police authorities of both city and borough, whose sympathy and co-operation we very thankfully acknowledge. As Manchester was one of the first cities, now over twelve years ago, to seek by legal enactment to ameliorate the condition of her poorest children, so she continues to-day one of the most active workers in the same cause.

— — — MARCHMONT HOME, ONTARIO, — — —

In this connection we may mention that we have been urging on the authorities the importance of regulating juvenile street-hawking. It is an evil under any conditions, but while allowed by law, we believe the evils attending it may be minimised by requiring that each juvenile, so occupied should be registered, and carry a license or badge (revokable at any time for misconduct) showing that such young person is physically and morally suitable for this dangerous calling.

We thankfully acknowledge the co-operation of the School Board and of the Corporation in this movement, a joint memorial is being prepared, and we trust the result will be to reduce to a minimum an evil which we would fain see entirely removed.

Farm Homes in the Colonies for our Poorest Children.

The Emigration of poor children, those who owing to their pauper or vicious surroundings are in danger of growing up to perpetuate these evils, has long been recognised by our most thoughtful philanthropists, as a necessity. With a population, already congested, rapidly increasing, and the difficulty of finding employment a consequently growing one, well might Lord Derby after a recent careful examination of the subject say—

“With our small area and our growing population, we are, and must be an emigrating country, we have no choice in the matter, and I do not hesitate to say that to dispose of the growing swarms of the poorest class is not a matter of humanity only, but one also of public safety.”

Another well-known Member of Parliament, who has himself visited the Colonies and investigated on the spot the question of Juvenile Emigration, said recently:—

"Though the work of Juvenile Emigration has been carried on for twenty years and the testimony unanimous that it was the most effective and economical means of saving destitute children, yet we still persisted in this country in bringing up masses of children under the poor law in the most wasteful manner. Thousands of children were being herded in the Workhouse Schools, costing the country a large sum annually, after being so kept for five or six years they were put to various employments or turned out into our large cities as domestic or other servants; with the result that a large proportion were drawn back into the Slough of Despond from which they had originally been taken. Notwithstanding that successive Presidents of the Local Government Board had acknowledged the truth of this statement and made concessions in order to make it easy for Poor Law Guardians to Emigrate, yet they had only thus provided for a few hundred children so."

The experience of the Committee of this Institution entirely confirms those views. The 642 children whom we have sent forth during the past ten years, have nearly all been taken from the destitute and dangerous class, some, especially girls, were on the very verge of ruin when they were rescued, and yet after a brief period of training at home, the effect of being speedily cut off from old associations and temptations has been wonderful. Among a number of such cases which crowd upon the memory, we recall that of

"M.P." one of whose happy letters lies before us while we write.

"Rather over two years ago while one of our active officers was getting a girl of thirteen out of an Angel Meadow lodging house, an elder girl of sixteen, who had herself fallen a victim to the awful life of that neighbourhood, but who had nobly shielded the younger child, interfered with our officer thinking he meant harm! This elder girl was "M.P.," after persuasion she ceased her opposition, and at length agreed to accompany our officer "to see where the younger girl was going." Once arrived at our Shelter, we lost no time in seeing her. This was our first introduction to "Maggie"; an impulsive, affectionate, but thoughtless girl; who, when not under the influence of passion and wickedness, had a bright honest face.

The thought flashed through our mind, 'Could she be saved,' the younger girl we could retain either with or against her will, not so Maggie!

The result of that first interview, and the confidence between us then established, has, notwithstanding many "ups and downs," anxious hours and earnest pleadings, never been lost! M. did not return to the Angel Meadow lodging house; she owed to the former sad life, she promised never to return to it, and, although some few months afterwards the almost inevitable restlessness which comes to such, led her to leave our home for a few days, we believe she kept her promise. But those eight months that intervened between M's rescue and her sailing for Canada will not soon pass from the writer's memory, on the one hand there was the warm-hearted impressionable girl full of good resolves, etc., on the other hand there were the old scenes of former freedom and frivolity, the old companions now and then seen, the old temptations recurring with awful force: once she was "almost gone," and the struggles and tears of that time, neither we or the good "Home Mother" who watched over "Maggie" shall ever forget. At length the desire came for Canada. It was to her truly "a door of hope;" the effect of proving herself worthy to be allowed to go, was of great benefit, and now that she is there, and has for over twelve months kept her situation with credit, her letters home are cause for deep thankfulness. At the close of one recently to hand, she says:—

"dear Mr. Shaw, if I were to write you every day I could not find words enough to thank you for sending me to Canada, I think it was God's hand that guided yours to send me, but you did spend such a lot of trouble over me, but I will thank you by shewing that I am a good girl, may God help you to save some other poor girl from the wicked life that I was leading, also do thank Mr. Ashley for his great kindness to me. I am saving up and hope to send you some money soon."

In calmly reviewing the history of this case we give it as our deliberate opinion that had this girl remained in this country the temptation from old companions, scenes, and surroundings, would have proved too strong for her, she must have inevitably succumbed! Who can estimate the gain both to the old country and to the new which emigration has thus wrought?

THE CASE OF THREE SISTERS recently rescued, will further illustrate the truth we are enforcing, the eldest aged 17, had been in service in a public house in Salford, and there came under the notice of one of our Prevention of Cruelty to Children Officers, but she suddenly left as her mother, an abandoned woman, was constantly coming after her for her money. Our officer heard she had gone to Oldham, followed and found her but in another public house, the girl knew of no other kind of situation. Here, however, she was in real danger, she had escaped from a bad mother, but she was now herself in the most imminent peril; she at once left the place with our officer and found the Shelter of our Homes. After a few months Eliza expressed a great desire for Canada, not only for her own sake but also in the hope that she might thus save her two younger sisters who were still with the mother and in danger of ere long following her sad life. Her request was granted and when on board, just as the ship was moving, she called to Mr. Ashley, "Don't forget my sisters, try and get them away from my mother, and send them to me."

This we regarded as a sacred trust, we got the two younger girls away from their life of danger, and now the three sisters are united in Canada living near together each in safe and comfortable homes.

We ask our Poor Law Guardians who object to emigrate any girls because of the dearth of domestic servants at home, was it not a wise economy to spend ten pounds in providing for each of these girls for life, rather than leave them in moral surroundings almost certain to compass their ruin!

The following letter is from 'Edith' who was brought to our Shelter late one night over two years ago. It is addressed to Miss Smethurst, our excellent Home Mother.

"Dear Mother,—I now take great pleasure in writing to you. I am doing very well indeed for I have a very good home and my master and mistress are very kind to me. I am learning to do many things, such as bake bread, make butter, etc. We have prayers morning and evening just as you have at Rosen Hallas. I have bought many new clothes as I have grown very much since I came, give my love to all the girls who know me, I hope they give you less trouble than I did, I never rise in the morning or go to bed at night without praying for you, and I am trying to walk in the way I was taught when I was with you. I used to think you were cross with me but I now find it was for my own good, give my love to Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, Miss Saunders and all who were so kind to me. Dear Mother, I must now close and with best love to yourself, I remain your loving daughter—EDITH."

This girl, now seventeen years of age, has been nearly two years in her first place, in Canada! She was rescued from a house of ill fame in Manchester, into which she had been driven by the action of her own father, but rescued just ere it was too late, and early removed from old surroundings, she is another proof of the untold blessing of Emigration. Referring to this in a subsequent letter she says: "I don't know what would have become of me if you had not sent me here, I do thank you."

Let us now take a case or two from our boys Emigration Department.

WILLIAM was described as a "slippery" lad. He was an orphan, and though an older sister was willing to give him part of her lodgings, she could not trust him when her back was turned. He would spend his school money, play truant, wander off to the cattle market with other boys, and she found him learning every form of evil. One of the lad's companions got into the hands of the police for petty theft, and this so frightened the sister that she came and begged us to admit her brother, and save him from a similar fate. We consented, but only by small degrees did he become weaned from his evil ways. Confidence however increased as Willie gained a working age, and then he made application for Canada. A fear lest old habits should again burst forth if he ever returned to the old neighbourhood in Salford, where his former bad companions still resided, helped us to a decision, and so in 1886 joined in our Emigration Party. The last reports from Canada are before us as we write, and thus we read of Willie as he is to-day.

"William is a fine strapping lad, who seems to love work, and takes the greatest interest in all farming operations. His master says he has no bad habits. He has made good progress at school, and goes to Church and Sunday School regularly."

ALFRED has proved another good investment. We were out on the streets at midnight, looking for homeless boys, and it so happened that Mr. Isaac Hoyle, the late M.P. for Heywood Division of the County, who is one of our Refuge Trustees, accompanied us that evening.

We found several lads, Alfred and his brother among the number.

After a little coffee supper and a friendly talk, these two lads entered the Refuge, and after a short but effective training, they were included in our band for Canada. They went the year before Willie, that is in 1885.

During the summer most of the boys spent a week at Camp, each lad paying his own fare. We also issue them cheap tickets for the baths. Mr. Charles Heywood gave a very handsome silver watch and chain last January to the boy who had been selected as the best for the previous year, and Mrs. Heywood has done the same this year.

Our excellent fellow labourer, Mr. Ackroyd continues to direct this department of the work, to its great advantage.

The head quarters of the Brigades are at No. 1 Chatham Street, where all application for messenger boys, etc., should be made.

The Prison Gate Mission and Evangelistic Work

Has pursued its useful work throughout the year. Morning by morning our valued helpers have attended at the gate in all weathers, and invited to the Mission Room, the discharged prisoners. The following came to the simple breakfast there provided.

Number of Men and Boys	5,857
Number of Women and Girls	3,198
Total				9,055
Number of Pledges signed	1,731

During the breakfast and after it, individual efforts are made among the young and least hardened, to win them to a better life.

In connection with this we may also mention the other Evangelistic work carried on. The Conference Hall, has been well filled every Sunday afternoon and evening throughout the year, with occasional meetings in the week. The Monthly Meetings for the Deepening of Spiritual Life, draws together a large number of the most earnest and deeply taught Christians in our city.

The smaller Hall has been also well used, by the Band of Hope, Children's Service, and other mission work.

Other branches of the work, such as:—

THE POLICE COURT MISSION TO LADS AND GIRLS. Each of our three Police Courts having a special officer attending each day.

THE BETHESDA HOME, for Crippled and Incurable Children.

THE ROSEN HALLS COTTAGE, for Convalescent children. "THE CHRISTIAN WORKER" MAGAZINE conducted in the interests of poor and suffering children.

THE BOOK SALOON AND CAXTON BRIGADE, for the distribution of pure literature. All these deserve more than a passing mention: we can, however, but name them, as we hasten to a close.

Finances.

The total cost of a work so large and so varied, and yet which we have been able only to barely outline in the foregoing pages, is of course considerable, it amounts to £12,858. 16. 2. At the same time we are bound to tell our readers that the total income has only reached £12,319. 4. 7. Consequently with the debit balance brought forward from 1891, there was a deficiency at the year's close of £1,265 2s. 10d. and with this debit balance, the Committee have had to begin the new year.

Two causes have contributed to this. First, the work has been larger than in any previous year, and secondly the existence of a building fund to which special and large donations are applied, always affects adversely the ordinary income of an institution.

With this year, however, the latter of these causes will cease; and in order that the increased work of the future may be duly provided for during the coming year, the Committee would be very grateful if they could be relieved of the debit balance with which they have been obliged to begin it.

But while we thus appeal, we should not like to convey the impression that the expenditure to any large extent exceeds the income. The deficiency alluded to did not all arise on last year's working :

The debit balance of 1891 was £725 11s. 3d.
while that of 1892 was less, viz. £539 11s. 7d.

Together making £1,265 2s. 10d.
so that while the Expenditure of last year exceeded that of 1891 by £460 10s. 6d. the Income exceeded 1891 by £669 12s. 11d. shewing a gain on 1892 over 1891 of £209 2s. 5d.

One source of income however is a great satisfaction to the Committee, and they know will be equally so to the subscribers and friends of the Institution, and that is the children's earnings, they amounted during the past year to £2,583 13s. 10d! These at least show no diminution, but are the largest we have ever yet recorded, nearly every department shewing an increase : forming as they do nearly one-fourth of the total income they tell unmistakably that we keep our original principle of "Self Help," before us, and they constitute a very powerful argument with our friends everywhere to help those who thus try to help themselves.

Changes, New Arrangements & Closing Words.

As more than two centres of operations were found to be undesirable, and as the Heathfield Girls' Home was the only one of our permanent Homes which we rented, the Committee deemed it wise, during the past year to close this house, and transfer the work there to Rosen Hallas, Cheetham Hill (since enlarged) where the work has been carried on since.

In the interests of the work, at the close of last year it was felt desirable that there should be only one Secretary, instead of two as formerly. Mr. Kirlaw at once generously expressed his willingness to retire, at the same time retaining his seat on the Committee and taking the management of the following important branches of the work for which he is so well qualified.—Working Lads' Home and Institute, Brigade Boys'

Home, Boys' Emigration Training Home, Book Saloon and Christian Worker Magazine, Prison Gate Mission, etc.

The Committee earnestly pray that these arrangements may have the blessing of God resting upon them, that so this great work among the rising generation, which has grown up under their hand may continue in ever increasing usefulness.

The year has seen many changes in the removal of old and valued friends, one especially will be greatly missed at Strangeways, as throughout Manchester,—OLIVER HEYWOOD, who was the Senior Trustee of the Institution, for twenty-one years taking the deepest interest in its progress, not only helping liberally with his purse, but also with his wise and loving counsel. We possess one of the last letters he ever wrote within a few days of the end, full of interest in the work and its future; his earnest words at the last Annual Meeting, so full of the deepest sympathy, will not soon pass from the memory of those who heard them.*

We must offer a word of hearty thanks to our Honorary Solicitors, Messrs. Farrar & Co., and our Honorary Medical Officers, Dr. Boutflower, and Dr. Rodger, also Mr. W. Simms, Hon. Dentist, who have again laid us under a deep debt of gratitude, for their continued important services. Also the large staff of voluntary helpers who either as Collectors, Teachers, Members of Working Parties, &c., have aided the work with most loving and faithful service. We owe very warm thanks to our many friends at Lytham and Ansdell for their continued practical sympathy with our Sea-side Home and Summer Camp, and to the ladies who carried to a successful issue, the Annual Sale of work, with its important pecuniary aid to the Institution, more than mere verbal thanks are due, but we know they are not needed.

*Just as we go to press Mrs. MacLaren, of Highfield, Pendlebury, who from the beginning took a warm interest in the institution, and whose 'Xmas gift for many years has provided overcoats for a large number of our boys, has been called away.

We also desire to acknowledge with gratitude the devotion of our regular staff, upon whose loyal co-operation so much of the success of the work depends.

And now in closing this record of another year's work, while the Committee are conscious of many shortcomings, and see room for improvements, which they trust the coming year will see effected, they nevertheless with some confidence and with deep thankfulness, commend the whole work to Him, for whom it has been done, and to the continued care and sympathy of His people. The work of child saving in which the Institution is engaged is, whether viewed from an Economic, a Patriotic, or a Christian standpoint, of untold importance; from the class with which we are dealing come those who either as vagrants and paupers, or possibly criminals, are the curse and the cost of our country.

It is ours, by God's blessing, to change the course of these young lives, to implant such principles within them that they may go forth on life's way strong in character and bright with hope, and thus in the days to come be a source of strength and not of weakness to the land of their birth.

On behalf of the Committee,

LEONARD K. SHAW, Hon. Sec.

MEDICAL REPORTS.

(CENTRAL REFUGE AND GREAT DUCIE STREET HOMES)

I am glad to be able to record that during the past twelve months the health of the inmates of the Strangeways Homes, which the Boys' Refuge embraces, has been well maintained: the only serious complaints being two cases of continued fever, one from the Central Refuge, and one from the Brigade Boys' Home, both happily have recovered. One young man at the Institute who has long been suffering from consumption, has died, being the only death I have to record.

The principal duties of a Surgeon at Institutions of this character being rather the prevention of disease than the cure of it, I am glad to record that the new master at the Central Refuge is quite imbued with the importance of Hygienic Rules, and strict discipline, which from my point of view are the two most important qualifications which any master should possess who has the charge of so many Boys.

At present I am of opinion that the dietary, clothing, and sanitary surroundings are entirely satisfactory.

(CHEETHAM HILL HOMES.)

In the past year one case of Scarlet Fever, and three of Measles, would practically have been all the cases of sickness worth reporting in these Homes, except for the boy (Michael) who seemingly still continues to linger hopelessly from liver disease. There have been no deaths to report.

At "Bethesda" there were five cases of Measles in last year and all did well. One case of Tubercular Meningitis unfortunately proved fatal to the little sufferer.

All the "Mothers" may be congratulated upon the very good health that has been maintained amongst their children generally throughout the last year.

HOW TO HELP THE WORK.

Write to the "Secretary, Frances Street, Strangers, for a

COLLECTING BOX

and collect what you can by December 31st. We have very pretty boxes.

Or, if you prefer,—

ASK FOR A COLLECTING CARD

and one will be sent by post.

If you think you can collect £15 to support a child, or £10 to cover the Emigration expenses of one child, write to the Secretary, and he will send you the photograph of one. It would be a happy thing to feel that you were thus the means of the rescue of "one such little child."

Or, send us any article that you can spare, and that can be turned into money for the benefit of our work; such as jewellery, pictures, articles of vertu, &c.

Last, but not least; when you see or hear of a poor wretched, neglected child, don't give it a copper and pass on; stay a minute and enquire into the case, and if you cannot bring it to the Refuge, send us the name and address, and the case shall be visited and, if possible, permanently helped.

And, above all, when enjoying the comforts of your own happy home, breathe a prayer for poor homeless children, and for those who are working among them!

LEONARD K. SHAW, Hon. Sec.

Donations of Clothing, new or second-hand, or useful articles of any description, will be most thankfully received. As the children, from three to sixteen years of age, both boys and girls, come to us needing everything, there is hardly any limit to the way in which the work can be helped forward.

£200 per week required to carry on the various operations of the Institution.
