CHILDREN.

I think in little children God is best, The best to love, and very kind to know : They come, and He is then our gentle Guest, And when they leave all goodness seems to go. In their small hands they bring a healing power, Their frolic laugh will chase the darkest pain, With so much warmth they fill the angel-hour That our chilled hearts must need unbend again. And so, among God's great and gifted men, I deem the chief are they whose hearts are still Like little children's. With a wayward ken They judge, and love, and give, and think no ill. 'Tis they who make our world less harsh and cold, God's simple giants, who have not grown old.

(From "Shadow and Gleam.")

"These Homes are based upon Christian principles, they are managed by practical methods, and are doing a great work for all the Churches. They are doing the work of ten Societies, and are in danger of only receiving the support of one."—THE LORD BISHOP OF MANCHESTER (Dr. Moorhouse) at the Annual Meeting, 1892.

FORTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT

Of the Manchester and Salford

Boys' and Girls' Refuges and Homes,

AND CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY,

For the Year 1910.

O write the forty-first Annual Report of any Institution which has been doing the same work during all the period indicated is perhaps to court monotony, especially for those friends who have read the record year by year.

In a presentation of the bald facts and figures it is, of course, impossible to escape a sameness for the good reason that so generalised a statement of the year's work is practically a repetition of many a previous one. Facts and figures both as to number of children and finances are necessary in a large public institution, but important and essential as they are they make but a limited appeal unless used as a key to the wider and richer demesne of sentiment and life. The millionaire's profits are not truly realised in his bank book, nor the scientist's achievements in his formulæ, but in the enriched satisfaction of a fuller life. 6

So in this Report, though the framework of statistics must be set up we would try to clothe it, helped by the sympathetic insight of our readers, with some account of the processes and results of work among the poor and destitute children of a large city.

There will come a time when to find within its borders a homeless child will bring discredit on a city and stigmatise a community as lacking in discharge of one of its first duties to itself and humanity. We rejoice that to-day it is an unusual thing to find a child absolutely homeless in our city. In the early days of this work, however, it was a common event, and almost an everyday experience for us to have to deal with a child of tender years who was found after the strictest investigation to be without friends or home—no shelter and often almost without clothing. It is impossible to bring home to the inexperienced the tragic pathos involved in the term a homeless child.

Beginning of the Work.

M. NICHARDS ASA MADE

The inception of such an Institution as ours is often interesting, and will be found frequently to have had its rise in the individual life. We may be allowed perhaps to re-state in a word for the sake of new readers the incident which was the seed of the work now so manifold in its activity. One Sunday evening in the winter of 1869 two little scholars leaving the St. Anne's Ragged School were found to be absolutely homeless. They had slept out for several nights not being able to pay the trifle at the common lodging house. Inquiries soon proved that these were not isolated cases, and two of the teachers resolved there should at least be shelter for these little street waifs. The result was the opening of the Home in Quay Street, Deansgate, as a Shelter for homeless boys, on January 4th, 1870. During that year 110 children were dealt with. Last year in the various agencies the number was 5,738.

Sister and Brothers rescued from dangerous surroundings, now doing well in Canada.

Opening the door Wider.

It is a pleasure and a deep satisfaction to receive one of the waifs and strays of humanity and restore a little child as far as possible to its rightful heritage of home and mothercare. Of late years, however, the Committee have deemed it wise that the door of admission should be opened wider and necessitous cases not absolutely friendless have been given the benefits of the Institution.

In many of these cases there has been not only the advantage to the child of suitable food, clothing and training, but there has been the incidental yet almost invaluable relief afforded to a poor widow burdened with the care and maintenance of a young family. Such help has just been sufficient to turn the scale in favour of a renewed effort on the part of the mother who otherwise would have been forced by circumstances into the workhouse. In this way the benefit to the community has been of even wider scope than in the case of a friendless child, for it has not only provided against one becoming a burden or a danger to society but has kept a whole family from becoming a charge on the rates, and it has also maintained their self-respect, often a greater asset to the national life than the material gain.

The Committee propose to widen the terms of the Trust so as to cover these cases and other agencies which have arisen naturally in the course of years for the benefit of poor children.

Objects.

The objects stated in terms of the Trust Deed prepared in the year 1870 may be of interest to those who read our Report for the first time.

To receive Homeless and Destitute Children found in Manchester and Salford and District.

To give immediate admission to such without distinction of Creed. To provide such with suitable food, clothing, and Industrial training. To educate such in Christian principles based on the Bible only.

For children and young people up to sixteen years of age without friends, our doors are wide open day and night, for as an Institution we hold ourselves responsible that no destitute child in our city need be without food and shelter.

New Applications.

The number of applications during the year was 727 boys 577, girls 150—coming from all parts of Manchester and Salford, and the adjacent townships. The majority had lost one or both parents, some had been deserted and knew nothing of the whereabouts of father or mother, some were children of widows with large families, and others had parents quite unfit to have charge of them owing to drunken or immoral habits.

The Year's Admissions.

destitution and need. These, with the 440 in the various Homes at the beginning of the year, make a total 855 under the care of the Committee during the twelve months. In addition to these, temporary help and advice have been given to a large number of cases not eligible for admission.

Summary of the Work.

It may be well to give a brief outline of the work during the year before stating some details in respect to each branch.

Fifty-five youths have been resident at the Young Men's Institute where they have had a good home and been provided for in every way.

Eighty-five boys resident at the Central Refuge have been employed in the various workshops there, receiving training in the respective trades, while

One hundred and ninety-one boys at this Home and adjoining ones at Strangeways have attended the neighbouring Council School as regular day scholars, and all have been cared for in respect to maintenance, training, etc.

Sixty young boys, orphans, have formed three of the Orphan Homes at Cheetham Hill, living a happy family life and attending school.

Given a Chance.

Two of our girls in Canada who, like so mary others, are doing well in the new land.

Forty-seven young girls have occupied the other two Orphan Homes. They are also without father and mother, and have been cared for in the same way.

Twenty-three little motherless girls have formed the family at the sixth house in George Street.

Sixty-seven elder girls have been resident at the Rosen Hallas Girls' Training Home and have been under training, the younger ones at school and the elder girls in the laundry and in domestic work.

Eighty-two little cripple or incurable children, boys and girls, have been resident at, and have had the benefits of, the Bethesda Home, receiving the particular attention they need as invalids; they come from surroundings of deepest poverty.

Several delicate children, as their cases required, have been cared for at the Convalescent Cottage in connection with these Homes.

Four hundred and forty-five destitute, neglected or suffering children from two to eighteen years of age have been received at all hours of the day and night at the Children's Shelter in the city.

Three hundred and forty-nine weak, ailing children from the slums have been sent to the Sea-Side Home at Lytham for a stay of seventeen days on the average.

Three thousand eight hundred and twenty-one poor city boys have had a week's holiday at the Summer Camp, Birkdale.

Seventy-one children, 51 boys and 20 girls, have been sent out to the receiving home in Canada and placed with respectable farmers in good homes.

II

One hundred and thirty of the children received at the Shelter were received on remand from the Police Courts instead of being committed to prison or workhouse.

Two hundred and forty-six young people charged at the Police Courts have been advised and helped.

One hundred and ninety-six poor lads have been employed in the outside Messenger and Shoeblack Brigades earning from 5/- to 8/- per week.

Eight thousand seven hundred and sixty-five discharged prisoners have been received at the Mission Hall, provided with a simple breakfast, and in many cases otherwise helped.

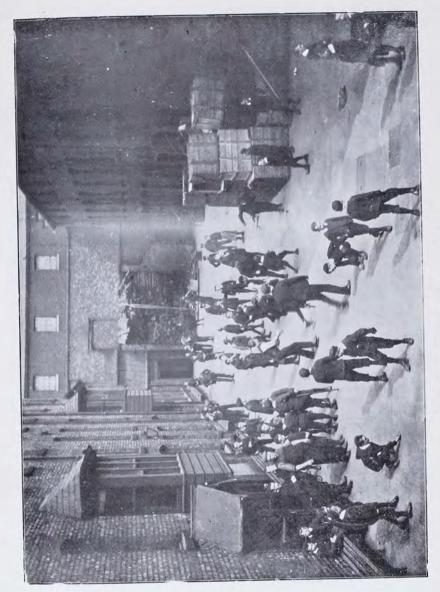

Now let us amplify this statement by a few particulars in regard to some of the branches.

A large family of 110 boys from 10 to 18 years of age necessarily involves a good deal of careful planning and method. Many of the boys are employed in the adjoining workshops, others in the house, some go to situations in the city, while perhaps one-third of the total number are school boys attending without any distinctive uniform the neighbouring Council School. Let us glance at an ordinary working day's routine for a moment.

In response to the bell every boy is up at six o'clock and going down to the lavatory prepares himself—each one using his own towel and toothbrush—for the duties of the day. Then follows family prayers after which the working boys at 6-30 commence their employment in their respective workshops

Joinery Tailoring Letterpress Printing Shoemaking Firewood-making.

Shoemaking Department, Central Refuge

Breakfast is served at eight o'clock and then there is recreation until nine o'clock when work is resumed and school boys off to school. In the meantime the early morning has been a busy time in the kitchen preparing the meal for so many hungry boys. On the domestic side there are many household duties proportionate to the size of the family. In the industrial departments there is in addition to the actual work all that is involved in receiving orders, correspondence, delivery of goods, and purchasing of materials (thousands of pounds worth in the year) and general oversight.

Work ceases at 12-30, dinner served at 1 o'clock, then relaxation until 2 o'clock when school or work is resumed. At 5-30 the day's labours are over. Then comes a busy scene in the lavatory until every lad is clean and presentable. Play or a quiet time in the reading room till 6-30 when the bell to which there is a prompt response announces tea.

The evening has many occupations, some boys to Technical School, others at Brass Band or Handbell Practice, games, reading, classes, swimming, gymnasium : at eight o'clock prayers and the younger boys to bed, the elder boys go at nine o'clock. So the day passes 'something attempted, something done,' according to rule.

Some evenings have special interests or duties. Thursday a concert is provided or a Band of Hope meeting held. Friday bath night. Of course Saturday is half holiday, and Sunday has its own distinctive and appropriate features, Church in the morning, School in the afternoon, and Service in the Refuge Hall in the evening for all the children in the Strangeways Homes.

Change of Surroundings.

Working Youths' Home and Institute.

With so many boys growing up in the various Homes a branch of this character is, of course, necessary. There is accommodation for 50 youths, and it is largely occupied by elder boys who have passed through the Refuge. They are employed in the Refuge workshops or in situations in the city, and pay a maximum amount of ten shillings per week for which they receive full board and washing with separate cubicle-bedroom, use of sitting room, games room, baths, gymnasium, etc. If there is room, youths of good character who may be strangers to the city are admitted. To some of these with small wages and without friends in the locality, it has been a place of safety and of much benefit.

The administration of this large family of young men is a great responsibility, and it is gratifying to see some of them after years of residence here making a home of their own. One of the most interesting gatherings in the year is that on the second Sunday in January, when old boys, some with wife and children, gather for the annual Re-union. There have been 55 resident during the year.

Other Strangeways Homes.

A HICHARON ADS MARKET ST MA

The other two Homes at Strangeways are occupied by younger boys who attend day school regularly, and pass on to the Refuge when of working age. One hundred and two boys have been dealt with in these Homes with an average number of 64 resident.

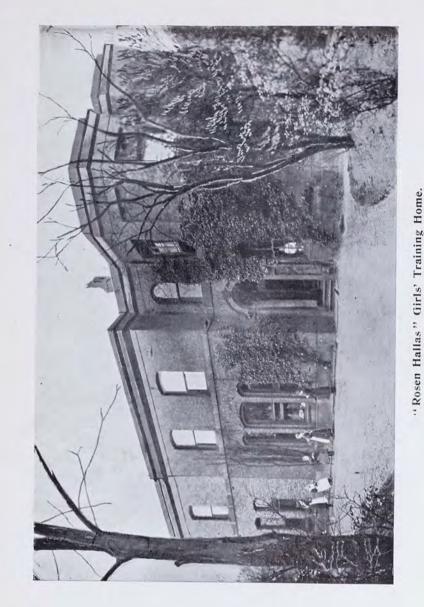

The details of some of the children received here during the year are full of interest if we had space for their histories.

A. M.

We have recently received this photo from Canada of one of our boys who went out three years ago. He writes, "I have a fine place, I am getting 50% a year, and if I earn more I get more. I am trusted with the team and like to drive. I attend School every Sunday and have the same old Bible. I see Willie E. and James P." Mr. Ackroyd when in Canada last year visited this boy and found him on a farm happy and contented. His master said he did not wish for a better boy.

He came to us a little fellow of ten from surroundings of a degraded character and from which it was imperative he should be removed if he was to have a chance of becoming a respectable citizen of any country.

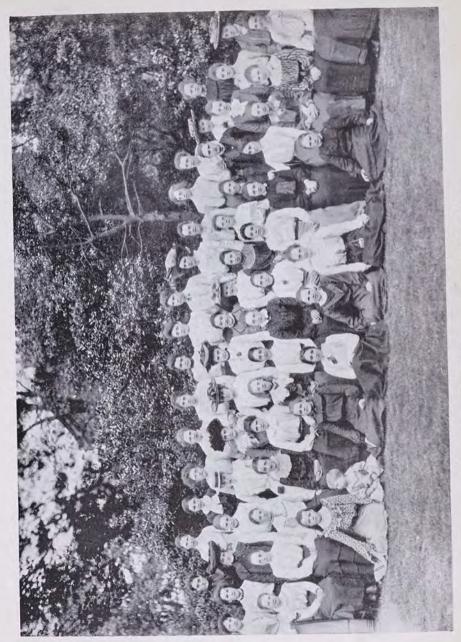

HIDHARDS ASA MARKET ST MAN

There has come the street lad; the widow's child, one of a large family; the orphan whose elder brother or sister has tried to maintain but was not able; the child of some young mother who is making a brave effort to recover her character; the deserted child; and the illused one. It is well the young life so quickly forgets the sorrow and privations and the evil communications of their former lot.

Rosen Hallas Girls' Home.

Among the elder girls there has been another year's quiet and devoted work on the part of the matron and assistants. Only those who have the experience know the difficulties arising from the early surroundings and temperament of some of the girls admitted to this Home. It requires much patience and tact with a quiet firmness to lead the young life to become industrious and orderly and so into habits of obedience and self-respect. One of the most gratifying sights in the round of the year is the annual gathering of old girls. A large number accept the invitation and give evidence in their own persons of their well doing to say nothing of the reports which are received from their employers.

The training of the girls over school age is in domestic, needle and laundry work: the washing for all the adjacent Homes is done here. A few girls are sent out to the Canadian Home each year on the principle named in the emigration section of this report. Our matron, who has taken out the girls' party to Canada for many years, spends a few weeks visiting among the girls sent out previously and is an enthusiastic advocate of emigration for girls who have undesirable relations on this side.

Orphan Homes, George Street.

The Orphan Homes are established on the family principle, some 16 to 20 children with a "Mother" and helper forming the household. They are five in number, three for boys and two for girls. The children attend the neighbouring Council School undistinguished from the other scholars by any uniform. They live a natural family life with hours for study and play, and they help in household duties as they are able. They attend the Churches and Sunday Schools in the locality, taking part in the various organisations, Christian Endeavour Society, Band of Hope, Church Choir, etc. As they grow older they pass to situations and attend evening classes. After leaving the Home they are frequent visitors, and the matron remains "Mother" to them for a long time.

The child as it enters one of these Homes is often a pathetic little figure, especially if you know its history, and you wonder, perhaps, if the tearfulness and shrinking will pass away. Come a few days after and you will find orphanhood swallowed up of love, and the child's interest quickly rooting itself in its new and happy surroundings.

In the sixth of these Homes the children (generally little girls) are not always without both parents. They are motherless and often in consequence neglected, dragged about from one lodging to another, the father not always indifferent but out of work, and having no one to care for the children they soon come to be in a pitiable condition, especially little girls. We have many applications of this character. They make an interesting family of 21, rather larger than the others.

RICHARDE SSA MARKET ST A

Bethesda Home for Cripple Children.

We pass from these to the Bethesda Home in Broughton Park for Cripple Children, standing in its own grounds looking the picture of peace with its grassy lawns and flower beds. Within we find 70 little broken lives cast up from the slums and poverty of the neighbouring city, wreckage from the great sea of human life, but cast up here as on to a very friendly and hospitable shore. One has only to see the surroundings of abject squalor from which some of these children come to realise what it means to have the comfort and cleanliness, nourishing food, and comfortable cot, the skilled attention of doctor and nurses, the interest of books and toys, and the kindly leading of the young lives into habits of respect and devoutness.

This Home was established in 1890 to meet, at least to some extent, the crying need of little children suffering from spinal trouble, hip-disease, certain forms of paralysis, or otherwise incurable. Often dismissed from the hospitals as hopeless cases they have had to return to conditions in the slums of extreme poverty, to lie perhaps in a crowded room month after month amid the winter cold and summer heat in pain and weariness. Such children are eligible without election after careful investigation of each case. There are, of course, incurable children we cannot admit here, infectious cases of phthisis which need special treatment.

Some of the little sufferers come only to die, others are greatly benefited while some are quite cured and return to friends making room for other little ones in the sad procession. It is interesting to notice how soon the child responds to the new environment and it is a great satisfaction to those in charge to see how much capacity, there is still left in the little life for joy and brightness, notwithstanding the limitations.

The object of the Home is thus defined :--

To provide for crippled, maimed, paralysed, and generally incurable poor children—boys up to the age of ten, girls up to the age of fourteen—whose cases are unsuitable for the ordinary hospitals.

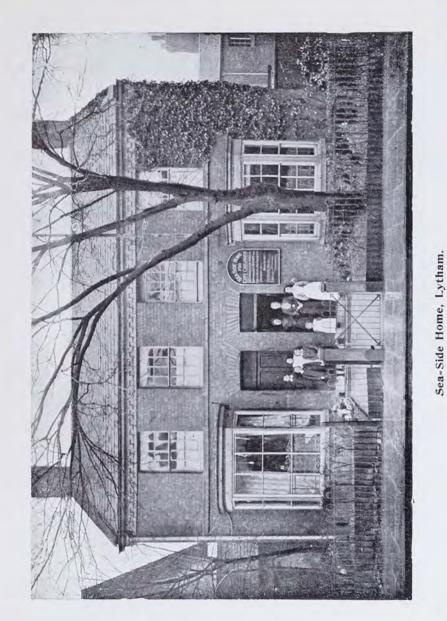

Several of the 70 cots here are endowed, some in memory of loved ones. \pounds 600 is the cost of endowment and the Committee earnestly appeal for gifts of this sum for the purpose of providing in perpetuity for a cripple or incurable child. In a few cases the yearly amount necessary for the maintenance of a cot is provided by friends and we shall be glad to receive from any of our readers an annual gift of \pounds 20 for the support of a bed.

Children's Shelter, Piccadilly :

Open Day and Night.

Reference is made on another page to the new premises for this branch and the formal opening during the year.

This Shelter, one might think of as a clearing house for poor children in all kinds of distress. Four hundred and forty-five have passed through during the year. The lost child, the destitute one found by the police or others on the street; the illused or neglected one; the girl who has run away from home in a neighbouring town; the child remanded from the Police Courts; the child of a widow going into hospital for a few weeks; and many another.

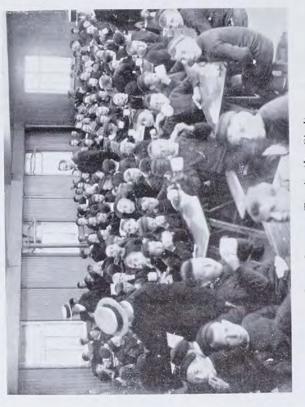

They are received at all times of the day and night and in all conditions of neglect. Often the clothes have to be destroyed and in some cases medical attention is necessary. Where after careful investigation a child is found to be friendless it is transferred to one of the Homes at Strangeways or Cheetham Hill.

Seaside Home,

Monday sees the little band of children arrive from Manchester numbering sometimes only two or three in the winter, but in the long summer-for this Home-from April to October, often twenty, the full complement. They arrive pale-faced, some very weak, only just convalescent and needing all the care and nourishment which our good matron is so willing to give. The change from the crowded street or alley of the city to the pure air of Lytham, soon evidences itself in the appearance and activity of the children. Clean, comfortable beds, plenty of good nourishing food with special preparations for the more delicate, walks by the sea or romp on the sands, an occasional visit to St. Anne's or Blackpool, provided for by some special gift, Church on Sundays and prayers night and morning make a week or two of happy memory for many a poor child who has to return to squalor and deprivation. Some of them kiss their beds on leaving and say good-bye to it as to a friend !

Summer Camp.

To give over 3,000 boys a week's holiday by the sea is a big task, though that is not the word you use when you see the lads throughout a summer's day enjoying the Camp life; then you call it no task but a labour of love with love's labour

not lost but found again in the life of the city lad, transformed into health and happiness. Of course there is a great deal of preparation and arrangement involved. Selection of suitable applicants through Ragged Schools, Health Visitors and others; inspection by Committee; examination by Doctor; every name registered; instructions as to cleanliness; and then getting 200 or 300 lads safely entrained at the Central Station every Monday afternoon. Arriving at Birkdale the Camp officials take up the tale. First, the roll call, to see that every boy has arrived safely, then tea worth seeing for those who have dainty appetites; change into uniform cap and jersey; allocation to sleeping quarters and later a quiet Camp within the sound of the sea.

The week runs over with enjoyment especially if the weather is fine. Games, bathing, strolls on the shore, visit to Southport, switchback ride, picture exhibition, and athletic sports competition on Saturday afternoon, punctuated by four good meals a day, make a good holiday to say nothing of the physical benefit to the lads. This latter is a gift to the community, for the assimilation of so much renewed health and strength by three to four thousand poor city children is a decided reinforcement of the labours of the City Medical Officer of Health. The cost, some six shillings per week per boy, is a great bargain to speak in terms of buying and selling especially when we think of some of our purchases, half-adozen cigars or a concert ticket. 3,821 boys had the holiday during the season. We regret that owing partly to special expenses this year there is a deficit in this account of $f_{.245}$ 7s. 2d.

The members of the Sub-Committee responsible for this branch have rendered most efficient service in organisation

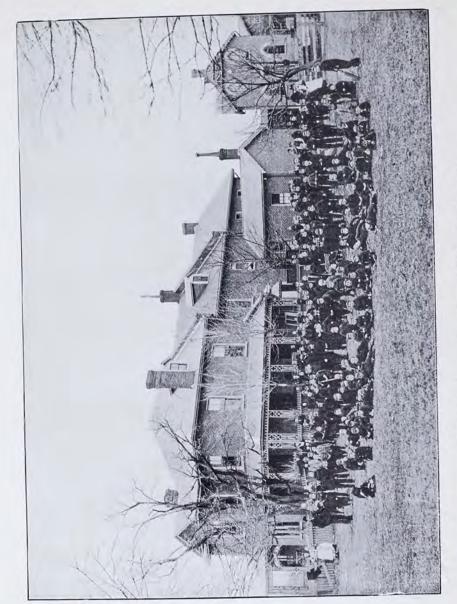

PROPERTING AND ADDRESS.

Prison Gate Mission.

8.765 men and women! The Prison Gate Mission has been active every morning in the week except Sunday throughout the year. The invitation given at the prison gate at seven o'clock each morning to the discharged prisoners has been gratefully accepted by the large majority. Coming to the Mission Room in Francis Street they have greatly appreciated the mug of coffee and bread and butter provided. It has given the opportunity for a kindly word and in some cases further help has been extended by means of clothing, lodgings, or employment. The number met at the Prison Gate was 11,610 and the proportion accepting the invitation and passing through the mission room in this way throughout the year is the large total of 8,765. Imagine a procession three miles long, four abreast, of these poor derelict men and women streaming out of the one gaol every year, broken in spirit, character gone, and the punishment on the part of a hostile world by no means ceasing at the prison door. We view with profound sympathy the proposals and efforts of the Home Secretary to introduce into the penal system reforms which shall discriminate more fully and intelligently between the different classes of offenders and treat all more humanely in a spirit which seeks to reclaim rather than to penalise.

In this connection it is pitiable to see what a number of destitute men and women come every morning begging for any surplus of bread and coffee there may be after the breakfast is over. Many of them appear to have walked the streets all night and are ravenous for the merest scrap.

Emigration.

The question of juvenile emigration is an interesting one from several points of view and will probably come into greater prominence as the nation gradually rises to a truer conception of its duty towards its neglected children. Some advocate it from the standpoint of serving the empire, preferring to people our colonies with our own stock rather than from other nationalities. Others point to the over-crowding in our large towns and the poor conditions even in the country districts, with the attendant excessive mortality among children, and ask why not give them a better chance in Canada. Some from the economic aspect compare our costly workhouse system with the possibilities of an efficient arrangement of boarding out, under supervision, in the colonies at much less outlay. As an institution responsible for the emigration of children to Canada for many years, we have different yet not less definite reasons for including this policy in our work of child rescue and reclamation. There is a class of children whom we admit who are worse off than orphans in that they are beset by the vicious influence of degraded relatives, and we realise from sad experience the paramount importance of guarding them against the possibility of the re-assertion of this influence when they become older. The only effective means is emigration as we know from a long experience of the conditions both at home and in Canada.

We are glad to see that the Poor Law Authorities in different parts of the country are realising the advantages of emigration from this point of view.

A case in point comes before us as we write. A girl aged 14 has been taken from the custody of her mother and placed Children's Home, Marchmont, Belleville, Ontario in our care until she is 16 by order of the magistrates under the Children Act of 1908. The evidence in court proved that the child was living in surroundings of the grossest immorality, incredible to most of our readers. The conditions were actually fraught with ruin to other girls very little older. The mother has been sent to prison for six months, and has, humanly speaking, forfeited her right to the name of mother by her infamous conduct. We are convinced there is no efficient protection against the possibility of the re-assertion of the debasing influence except entire separation by emigrating the girl. We are appealing under the Children Act to the Home Secretary for permission to do so.

We have sent out two parties of young emigrants during the year, 52 boys in April, and 19 girls in May. They were a bright company of 52 lads as they appeared at the Town Hall on the day before sailing, and received the Lord Mayor of Manchester's official, though none the less hearty, "Good-bye." He bade the boys God speed, and said it was in their power to add to the good reputation of their city and country. He asked everyone of the boys to set before himself a high ideal and to try and live up to it. They were bound to have difficulties, but though they did not succeed the first time, they should try, try again. The Lady Mayoress also addressed some gracious words to the lads, to each of whom she gave a new sixpence. They were received by the Rev. Robert Wallace at the Marchmont Home in Ontario and placed in good homes with farmers who were required to produce satisfactory credentials as to character. Forty of these children were from our own Institution and thirty-one from Boards of Guardians. Reports from our visitors and letters from the children themselves are most encouraging.

New Shelter.

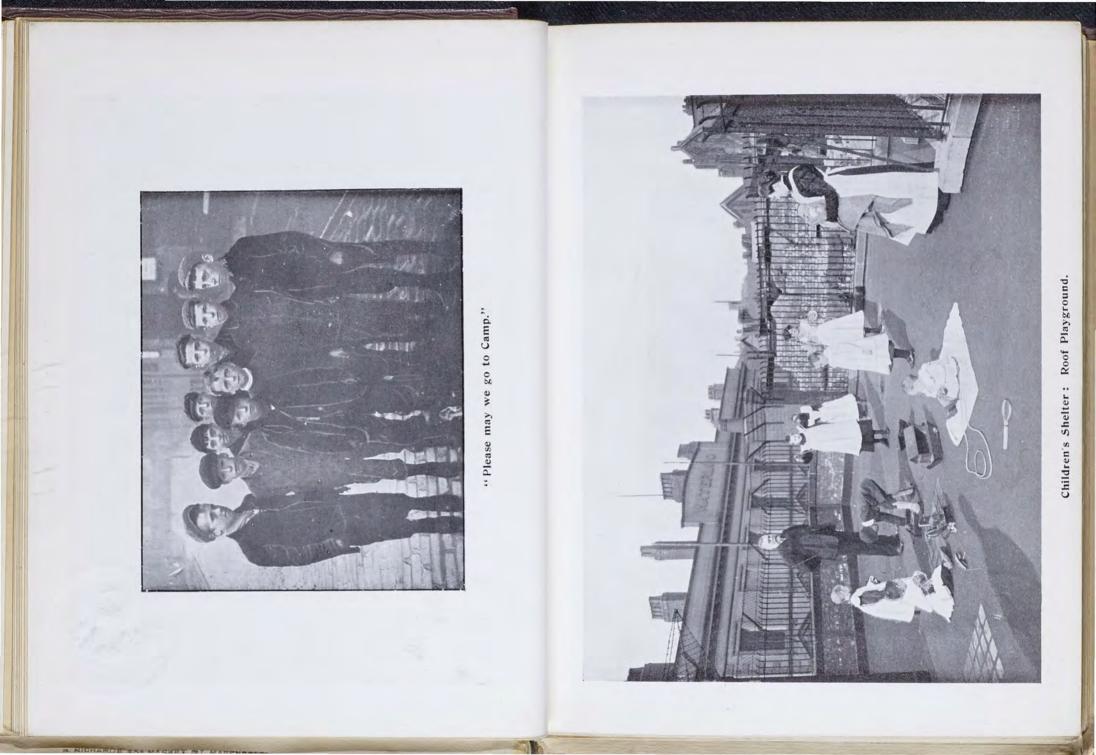

One of the features which will specially mark the year under review is the opening of the new building for our Children's Shelter, in Chatham Street, Piccadilly. In these new premises we have a substantial and well-equipped building specially adapted for the work of the Shelter and the Messenger and Shoeblack Brigades. The ground floor and basement are used by the Brigades and the two upper floors accommodate the children who are brought there at all times of the day and night. The arrangements are of course a great improvement on the old building and include a roof playground.

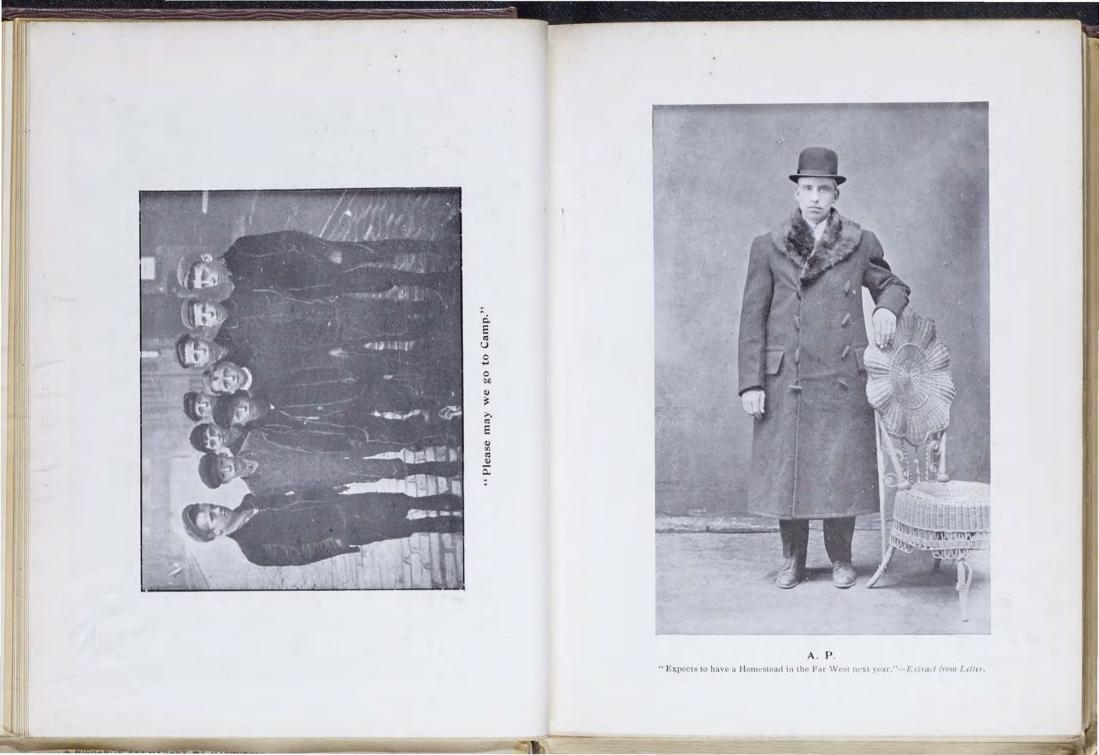

We were fortunate in being able to build practically on the site where the old Shelter had been located over 20 years, and we gratefully record that the cost, $\pounds 9,000$, has been provided by special donations and legacies. The building, now the property of the Trustees, will save a heavy rent charge in the future.

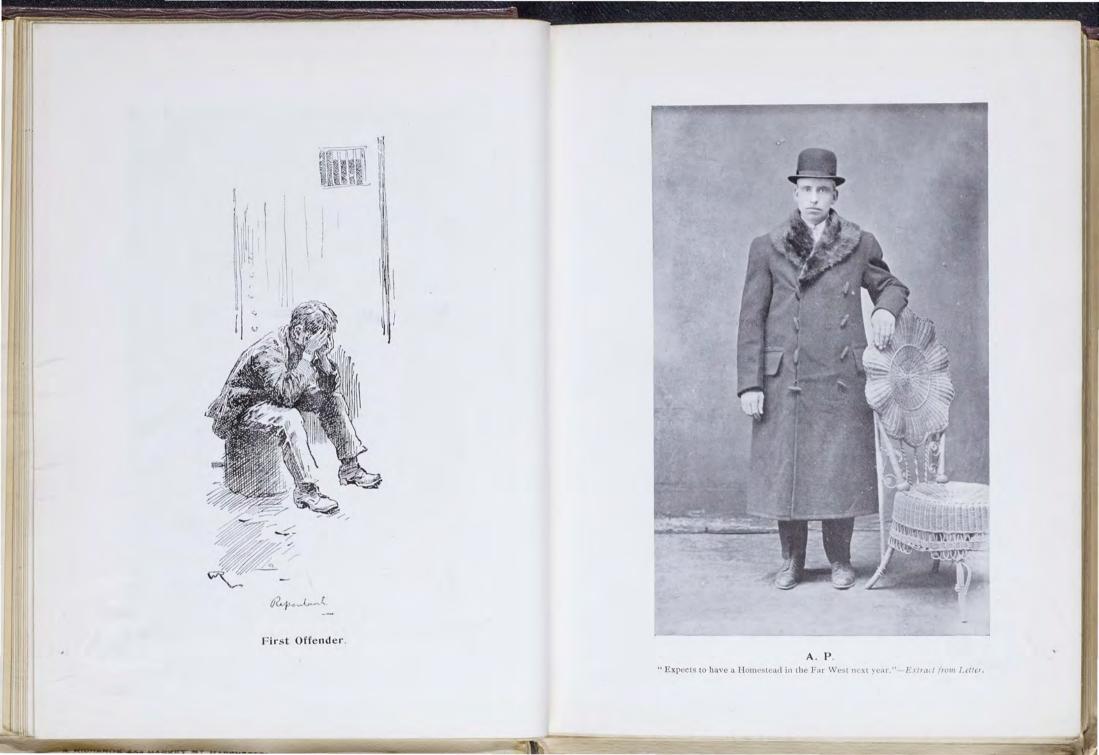

The formal opening took place on June 20th at which Sir William Crossley, Bart., M.P., presided. After a dedicatory prayer by the Dean of Manchester (Bishop Welldon), and a statement as to the object of the new building by the Hon. Sec., Lady Crossley in a very sympathetic speech declared the Shelter open.

Friends are invited to call and see the new premises, and the work carried on there on behalf of needy and distressed children.

First Offender.

Probation.

Our inspector is the probation officer for the city police court, for boys up to 16, and from a long experience in dealing with juvenile offenders, speaks with great appreciation of the probation system as seen in operation during the past three years. While the gravity of the offence is brought home to the delinquent his self-respect is not destroyed, as was often the case under the old system, but saved and fostered under a kindly yet authoritative oversight.

The figures for the three years in respect to the cases referred to our officer are eloquent testimony to a method that is a step in the direction of a wise and humane application of reformation principles, rather than those of mere repression so often only expressive of a social vengeance :—

	On probation.	Satisfactory.	Un-satisfactory.
1908	13	8	5
1909	19	17	2
1910	24	20	4

The misdemeanour in 50 of these cases was stealing, in six cases it was a minor offence, begging, obstruction, etc. Committal to prison would have probably resulted in confirming any criminal tendency in the lad and in making moral recovery very much more difficult.

Police Court Mission.

In connection with this Mission our officers at the City and County Police Courts have dealt with 246 cases of children and young people before the magistrates on various charges. They have been able to help and advise in many ways, some of the children being admitted to our permanent homes. The assistance thus rendered to the Courts has been highly appreciated by the magistrates. Recently Mr. Yates, the Stipendiary Magistrate at the County Police Court, publicly expressed his appreciation, remarking in one case "the Refuge does such an amount of good at this court in one way or another that I hardly know how to express my appreciation of the work."

Boy Labour.

With some three hundred boys under the care of the Committee we are naturally interested in the question of Boy Labour. It is now being generally realised, though we have referred to it for years in our reports that boys leaving school at 13 or 14 and entering unskilled occupations, only increased a few years later the number of unemployed.

We need not enter into the question here, only in so far as it touches the boys in our care. Those who are permanent inmates of the Institution are as a rule passed into our own workshops when they leave school and are apprenticed to the respective trades. Provision is made for them to attend suitable evening classes at the Technical School and at the expiration of their term of apprenticeship they follow their trade in some establishment in the city or district.

It is different with the poor lads organised into our Messenger and Shoeblack Brigades. Years ago we were constantly, as we are now, coming into contact with poor boys living with parents or friends, and no longer required to attend school, who were seeking work and in the difficulty of obtaining it gradually drifting on to the streets as hawkers or worse. Brought face to face with this condition of things in our work on behalf of the children we formed these outside brigades, and during 26 years they have been a stepping stone for hundreds of poor lads to permanent situations. While in the Brigade they are under supervision and discipline, uniform is provided and a minimum wage of 5s. per week is assured. Pending some national scheme for dealing with the whole question we are convinced this branch of our work has been of incalculable benefit to many of the most needy, saving them from a street life. One hundred and ninety-six boys have been in the Brigade during the year.

Finances.

It will be seen from the full financial statement that we closed the year with a deficiency of $\pounds 678$ 14s. 1d. We are glad to record however that this is not due to a diminished income, but to exceptional expenditure in new drainage, special repairs and painting in some of the branches.

The total expenditure for the maintenance of all the branches amount to £16,472 17s. 6d., and the income, including balance of £373 3s. 1od., brought forward, amounts to £15,794 3s. 5d. The income is made up of contributions as shewn in the list, interest on invested funds largely for endowment, and children's earnings and profit on their work. The last named item is always of special interest as it represents the amount contributed by the young people themselves towards their own maintenance.

It consists of payment for board on the part of each boy or youth earning wages together with the profits in the various industrial departments. This year it amounts to the sum of $\pounds 3,184$ 5s. 10d., or nearly one-fifth of the total income. The principle of self-help is thus shewn to be in active operation. At the same time we would like to say that the work in our various workshops has been done under reasonable and healthy conditions, the training of the young workmen being kept in view as well as the efficiency of each department.

161 Sunday Ragged School Union Scripture Examination, 1910 & Winners of the Challenge Shield Refuge Bible Class:

28

In addition many of the old boys and girls send contributions which appear in the list as thankofferings, expressions of gratitude for benefits received in years gone by.

While we are most grateful for the many friends and the generous help we are anxious to increase the number of annual subscribers for the regular income is not sufficient to meet the expenditure, and we have to apply legacies or obtain special contributions to meet the year's needs. We know of no means of enlisting fresh sympathy and help so effective as a personal visit to the Homes. May we suggest that our readers could help us materially by bringing a friend to see the work in operation at one or more of the branches.

Helpers.

We have not space in these pages to record all the help we get in so many ways from friends near and far but we would venture to give a few typical instances, interesting in themselves and suggestive we hope of how help may be rendered in promoting the work of the Institution.

In July a cricket match was held at Cheetham Hill between Royal Exchange and Corn Exchange members. It was organised by a few friends interested in the effort to give poor city lads a week's holiday at Camp, and resulted in $\pounds 57$ 7s. od.

ASA MARKET ST MANKA

for that fund. Good as this was the sequel is much better for the same friends after visiting the Camp at Birkdale, and seeing the very practical character of the work very generously undertook to provide and furnish a new dormitory for the youngest boys at a cost of over \pounds_{300} .

29

Towards the close of the year some children at Rusholme prepared and gave a performance of Little Red Riding Hood, announcing it in this quaint fashion.

Admit one.

Ten little girls whom you know invite you to see them do "Little Red Riding Hood," at the Lecture Hall, Union Chapel, on Monday, December 19th, at 7-30 p.m. They want to help the Crippled Children's Home, so ask for a silver collection.

The result was $\pounds 7$ 3s. 7d. for our Cripples' Home. The names of these young folk with others who have helped us in similar ways will be found in the subscription list.

We are also indebted to other friends who have rendered us kindly and efficient service in another way. During the winter season Mr. Henry George has arranged for a pleasant Thursday evening every week for the boys at Strangeways when a concert, lecture, or band of hope meeting has been held. The many ladies and gentlemen who have paid us a visit in connection with these evenings have laid us under a deep obligation. We cannot name them personally but we tender our warmest thanks to each.

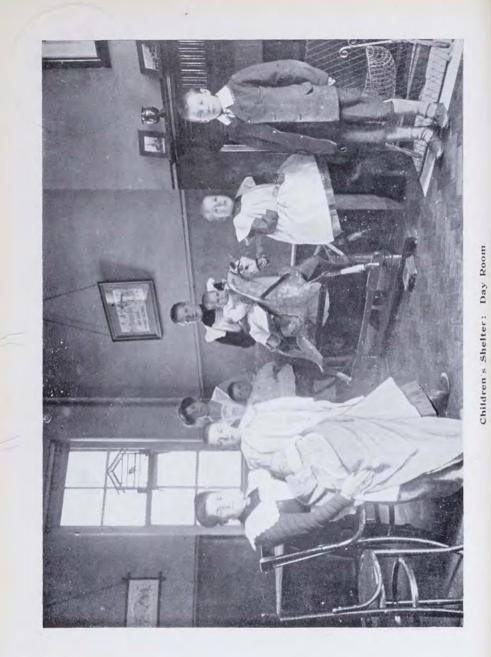

National Federation of Christian Workers

among Poor Children.

An interesting organisation was formed two years ago having for its object the bringing into association workers among poor children in various parts of the country. It is entitled the National Federation of Christian Workers among Poor Children, and is under the presidency of Sir John Kirk, of the London Ragged School Union. The Spring Meeting was held in London and the Autumn Conference in Newcastle-on-Tyne. In both cities a cordial welcome was given to the delegates. In the metropolis the Marquis of Northampton presided at some of the sessions and with other friends made the visit memorable. The Lord Mayor of Newcastle and Mayor of Gateshead took an active part in the proceedings at Newcastle. Visits to local institutions were very interesting and instructive. We were represented at both conferences, and it is gratifying to know that the work of our Institution was referred to more than once as an example to other communities. The fine Sanatorium at Newcastle for Consumptive Children, however, made our delegates envious of that enterprising city.

In Memoriam.

As we write this Report we learn the sad news of the death of the Rev. Arthur Parkinson, who as Rector of St. Clement's Church, Broughton, has long been associated with the Institution. The boys and masters from the Central Refuge have attended St. Clement's for 25 years during the whole of which Mr. Parkinson was minister. He took a kindly interest in the lads and often visited the Refuge. He was always present at the Christmas dinner saying a seasonable and hearty word. He will be missed by the boys. They sent a beautiful wreath and forty of them joined in the funeral procession.

Among several old and generous friends whose help and sympathy we have lost through death during the year are Miss Armstrong, Miss Gauthorp, Lady Maclure, Canon Fausset, Rev. R. Haworth, and Mr. A. J. S. Bles. The annual subscription from some of these friends was for a period of over 20 years, the first named was a subscriber from 1870, the first year of the Institution.

Conclusion.

The Committee gratefully acknowledge the support they have received from the staff in the management of the various Homes and Branches and highly appreciate the loyalty and devotion which has been manifested throughout another year.

We cannot close without acknowledging the guidance of the Most High throughout another year. His Hand has been upon the work from the beginning, and we pray that His Benediction may continue to rest upon it.

On behalf of the Committee,

THOS. R. ACKROYD,

Hon. Sec.

Strangeways, Manchester, April, 1911.

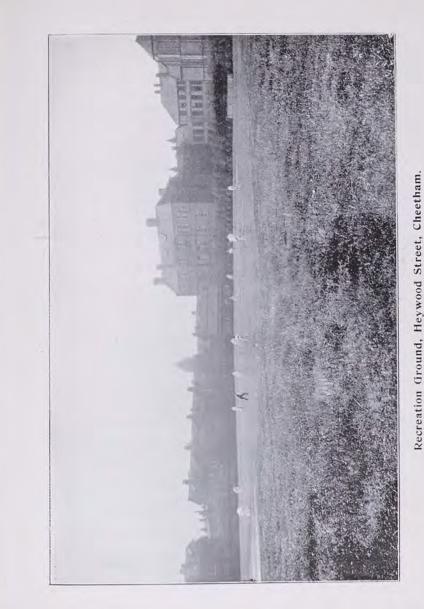

APPENDICES.

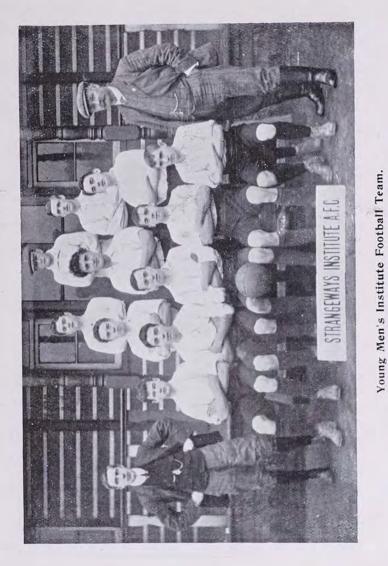

The Committee are deeply sensible of their great obligation to the Honorary Solicitors, Messrs. Farrar & Co., and to the Honorary Medical Officers, Doctors Boutflower and Walker, Strangeways; Doctors Fulton and J. Howson Ray, Cheetham Hill; Doctors Barlow and Fisher, Lytham; to Mr. W. and Mr. H. Simms as Dentists for the Homes at Strangeways: and Mr. A. T. Spaven, Dentist, for the Cheetham Hill Homes; also to Dr. Walsh and Dr. Brown, who have specially helped in the work of the Summer Camp; and to Dr. Young for services rendered at the Children's Shelter.

We are also under a debt of gratitude to the Board of Management of the Salford Royal Hospital who are always ready to admit cases requiring hospital treatment : several cases have been received from our Homes during the past year. The Governors of the Thomas Porter Equipment Fund have again most generously helped in providing the outfit of children passed on to situations at home and abroad, and we gratefully recognise their valuable assistance.

We would assure all our Collectors, the Teachers of the Sunday and week evening classes, the members of Working Parties, and all those who took part in the Annual Sale of Work, that their interest in the Institution and the practical help they have rendered are highly appreciated by the Committee and are thankfully acknowledged.

To all who in any way, either by gifts, active service, loving interest, prayerful sympathy, have contributed to the success of another year's work, the Committee, in sending forth this report, tender their heartfelt thanks.

MEDICAL REPORTS.

Strangeways Homes.

The general health of the boys at the various Homes in Strangeways during the past year has been satisfactory. A school boy at the Emigration Home contracted Scarlet Fever, probably at school, and several boys were later attacked. Somehow it was conveyed to the Boys' Refuge but this was limited to six cases. We have one death to record, somewhat sudden. One very severe case of Pneumonia was carefully nursed at the Refuge and made a good recovery.

The food, clothing, and sanitary arrangements continue satisfactory.

ANDREW BOUTFLOWER,

Honovary Surgeon.

Cheetham Hill Homes.

The health of the inmates of our Homes for the year 1910 has not been specially good, though not worse than the average in such institutions. Still it seems to me, my colleague (Dr. Muterer) and I have had quite a lot of very minor ailments to attend to, and pretty much the usual number of the more serious ones. Among the latter were two cases of Heart Disease and one of Rheumatic Fever. Of infectious diseases we had seven cases of measles, two of Chicken-pox, and three of Tuberculosis. Death claimed two of the Tubercle cases, both being resident in Bethesda. The remaining case of tubercle was refused Sanatorium treatment as being too far advanced. She is now quite recovered and a very great credit to the '' Mother'' who had charge of her. We had no accidents this year.

I am quite satisfied with the sanitary arrangements, and the cleanliness and general look of well-being of all the children. I consider that the general management is a great credit to all concerned.

Visits to the Farm Homes in Canada.

ACH year one or both of our parties of young emigrants to Canada is accompanied by a member of our Committee or staff, who, during the two or three weeks in the country, visit a number of the boys and girls placed out in the farm homes round Belleville in previous years. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor of our Children's Shelter went in charge of the boys' party this year, and arranged to visit some of the boys and girls whom years ago they had received at the Shelter from conditions of misery and neglect. This fact makes the following reports which they have brought home specially interesting. They are given literally and we commend them to the consideration of any who are doubtful as to the wisdom of emigration for children who have degraded connections in the old country.

E.K.—It is interesting to be able to preface my remarks by the fact that we had the pleasure of seeing the first girl that we took charge of at the Shelter, almost 20 years ago, and that she has been in the same family all the time she has been out. She has become a fine woman, and says she shall not leave her present good home, nor would she like to return to live in England. It was most refreshing to speak to and with her of our early knowledge of one another. This is truly a miracle of grace.

M.D.—This girl who, whilst at the Shelter caused some trouble, and we often wondered whether there was any good in her, has now become a fine healthy, and refined young woman. She likes the country—has got into a good place now—at first a little troublesome. Now a changed person trying to live a new life in Him who alone is able to change such stubborn wills.

F.H.—This girl is slightly deaf. Lives with Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw, the latter is a Marchmont Home girl herself and wants Flo to look after her little children. She says the girl is a real worker, and instead of being sent or made to work she has to stop her from doing it. The girl appeared to be just as one of the family—playing outside. Attends Church and Sunday School.

CH SAN MARKET ST MANPH

L.R.—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. It came as a charm to meet one who knew us as soon as we met. She without doubt has come into a nice home. Mr. and Mrs. G. are a good class of people who make Lily as one of the family. They left us together for a nice time. She says she is very comfortable and they are good to her. Likes the country. Attends Church.

N.P.—It was a real treat to see this girl who had grown into quite a refined young woman. Our call at her home was early in the morning—the mistress, being unwell was not up. We saw the master who spoke very highly of Nellie who was then left alone with us. She said she had a very good home, the mistress being very kind to her and she did the work but as one of the family, the daughter, about the same age, and herself going out together. In our own mind's eye we looked at this girl when first brought to the Shelter, almost naked, having gone to the police station, telling the officer she had no decent place to sleep, and when her mother would have taken her away she refused to go with her. And now to see her we cannot but thank God that ever He put it into the heart of man to establish an open door.

M.B.—This girl has got into a small but good home where she is treated just as one of the family which is of the family of God. She was at home from school and as soon as she saw Mrs. Taylor and me she came forward to greet us. During her stay we were shown quite a number of presents sent to her by members of the family living away. Her only fault is she wants to run out at night. We appealed for firm sympathy. The girl has made a marked changed from when we first saw her. Is very clean and well kept. Attends School, Sunday School and Church.

S.A.—This girl is in her second place with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Inch. Her mistress is quite satisfied with her work but she is very untruthful. She is well clothed and has the appearance of a well kept girl. We were left alone with the girl who said her mistress was very kind to her and prayed with her for strength to be good. She made one more promise. A good Christian home—all attend God's house.

M.M.—Lives with Mr. and Mrs. Newton who are Christian people who take a lively interest in the girl who says she has a good home. Encouraged to attend Sunday School where she has just had presented to her a Bible for bringing the most new scholars. She likes the country well. Not a very strong girl but is well thought of by her master and mistress.

T.T.—It was one of the most enjoyable sights of our trip to see this girl who has now become a fine refined young woman. We did not see her farm home having written her to be at the station, to which place her master had driven her. On seeing her and the great change made in her appearance made us lift our hearts in thankfulness to God for His love for the outcast, for truly this girl was one such if ever one came to the Open Door. Another good feature in her character was that she has not forgotten the kindness shown her. Her words of thankfulness to Mr. Fildes for his interest in her were many and not to be forgotten. To her credit be it said she had \pounds to in the bank. Her master says she is a first class milker—receives $5\frac{1}{2}$ dollars per month. I must state we lost a night's sleep to see her, the train service being bad.

A True Colonist.

HE following letter received a few months ago by Miss Rix, one of our matrons at Cheetham Hill, from one of her old boys, will be interesting to many of our friends who are interested in the Emigration branch of our work. We are able to give on opposite page his photo and picture of him at work on his land.

MILESTONE,

May 8th, 1910.

Dear Mother,

SA MARKET ST. MANPHE

"It is a long time since I heard from you but think it is my turn to write. We were just reading in the papers about King Edward's death. I suppose England is badly upset at the present time. We got word here on Friday noon that he was dead. I was in England at his Coronation, and can remember the day well. Did I tell you about me having half a section of land? It is only about four miles from the railroad, everybody says I am a lucky boy.

I am in the vicinity of a lot of the Lansdowne people, and it will seem like home to be so close to each other, there are thirteen families of Lansdowne people that I know located around within the radius of thirteen miles, that is not very far in this country, one hundred miles is nothing out here. I have a beautiful spring on my place that is worth a lot round here, as the water arrangement is poor, they have to draw it four miles to supply the town.

My brother Frank is getting along nicely at the printing trade, they like him fine, and I was down to see him last night, and hear good reports about him, they say he is very smart at the trade. I report for his paper, and think that helps him considerably. I am afraid he is going to give me a hard run if I don't hurry up, he is going right along. There are several men who have told me that I will be worth something after a while if I do my duties right. I have to live on my place six years before I get my patent.

Well I don't think I have any more news this time, hoping this letter finds you all as it leaves me. Give my best regards to all the boys, and also to Mrs. Shaw. Good bye for a while.

> From your ever loving boy, VINCENT.

F you think you can collect f_{15} to support a child, or f_{12} to cover the Emigration expenses of one child, write to the Secretary, and he will send you the photograph of one. It would be a happy thing to feel that you were thus the means of the rescue of "one such little child."

Or, send us any article that you can spare, and that can be turned into money for the benefit of our work; such as jewellery, pictures, articles of virtu, &c.

But not least; when you see or hear of a poor, wretched, neglected child, don't give it a copper and pass on; stay a minute and enquire into the case, and if you cannot bring it to the Refuge, send us the name and address and the case shall be visited, and, if possible, permanently helped.
