

Communication

This half term we are reading books about our local area, and city life. We will also be writing about where we are from.

My World – Science

In science, we are learning about plants and how they grow.

My World – Humanities

RE: We are looking the themes of repentance and forgiveness.

Humanities: this half term we are looking at fieldwork in the local area; Human and physical features; Using and making maps; Aerial images, Changes within living memory; Significant people; Places and events in the local area.

Reasoning

We are looking at solving problems using numbers, as well as how to tell the time.

Creativity – Music

Pupils will learn to recognise different sounds and instruments and will find, record and manipulate sounds using music technology whilst continuing to develop a sense of rhythm and timing through practical percussion based activities.

Understanding Me and My Relationships

We are learning about different people who can help us, such as emergency services.

Creativity – Art

We are creating artworks imitating the styles of local artists from Manchester.

Physical Development

We are going trampolining as well as completing obstacle courses and group games.

My World – Food Technology

This term the topic street detectives, looking at foods from the local area like the Turkish restaurant, bakeries and cafes, recipes including biscuits, muffins, paninis and curries.